COMES RIGHT BACK AGAIN

Women Suffrage, Beaten Yesterday, is Once More in Senate.

SHAFROTH HAS BRAN NEW PLAN

Would Require States to Decide on 5 Per Cent. Petition.

Washington, March 20.—Woman suffrage came to the fore in the senate again today and a new resolution for a constitutional amendment was proposed by Senator Shafroth to take the place of that defeated yesterday. It would require states to decide the suffrage question for themselves whenever 5 per cent of the voters petitioned for it.

The first fight developed when Mr. Shafroth asked to have the resolution sent to the suffrage committee. Senators who voted against yesterday's resolution wanted it to go to the judiciary committee were beaten 37 to 25.

Are Not Discouraged.

Advocates of woman suffrage today declared that they were not discouraged because they lost their fight in the United States senate yesterday to secure the adoption of an amendment to the federal constitution extending the right of suffrage to women.

The senate voted 35 for the amendment to 34 against it, a two-thirds affirmative vote being necessary for passage. Suffrage leaders were pointing today to the majority of one vote in favor of the amendment as proof that their cause had scored a triumph in the senate and was stronger than its opponents had ever been willing to admit. They professed to see in the action of the senate only a temporary setback in their fight and express the belief that woman suffrage would eventually come. They were hoping today that the senate

GIRL CLIMBS HIGH DOME TO UNFURL AMERICAN FLAG.

San Francisco, March 20. Miss Loth Agnes Bergstre, 18, climbed 165 feet yesterday to the top of the dome of the pavilion of the transportation building on the exposition grounds and unfurled a five foot American flag. This unique manner of unfurling the flag was devised by the structural iron workers to indicate the completion of the highest point of their work on the fair grounds. Miss Bergstron was clad in a gymnasium suit.

Her Illness Has Alarmed Washington

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson

Washington, D. C., March 20.—The condition of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of President Wilson, has alarmed Washington and caused uneasiness at the white house. Mrs. Wilson had an operation performed on her foot a few days ago and is making very slow recovery.

CARSON MAKES A DRAMATIC ENTRY

Ulster Unionist Leader is Acclaimed in Capital of Province.

FEELING IS TENSE

Belfast, Ireland, March 20.—Sir Edward Carson, the leader of the unionists of Ulster, made a dramatic entry into the capital of the province today. His purpose in coming here is to consult with the other Ulster unionist leaders and with the commanders of the Ulster volunteer forces.

The great activity displayed at unionist headquarters and in the army barracks has caused considerable excitement among the people of Belfast, who for days past have been momentarily expecting some decisive move on the part of the unionist chiefs or the government.

Before landing Sir Edward Carson received on board the steamer on which he had made the passage from England Sir George Richardson, a retired lieutenant general of the British army who is commander-in-chief of the Ulster unionist forces, together with his chief officers.

As the party came down the gangway from the steamer to the pier the emergency force of picketed men were drawn up as a guard of honor. A big crowd gave them a noisy welcome, cheering wildly and firing salvos into the air from their revolvers. During the night automobiles had been kept busy moving stores and documents from the unionist headquarters, apparently fearing a raid by the police, who have been keeping close watch on every move made by the unionists.

Precautions of a rigorous character have been taken at the Victoria military barracks here. Extra guards are on duty day and night. Urgent instructions have been sent to the military authorities in the south of Ireland to dispatch reinforcements to the garrison stations in Ulster.

In response to instructions from army headquarters a detachment of 200 infantry arrived at Newry today from the Curraghe and another 300 from Mullingar. The garrison of Londonderry also was reinforced by 300 men from Mullingar and two warships arrived in Dublin bay.

Feeling among the public in Belfast has become tense since yesterday's debate in parliament. Soon after his arrival here Sir Edward Carson issued an appeal to his followers to preserve calm.

WIPES OUT DEBT OF $4,000,000

Frisco System Subsidiary Line Goes Back to Promoters.

BREAKING UP MERGER

St. Louis, Mo., March 20.—A debt of more than $3,900,000, which the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad owed Albert T. Perkins, as syndicate trustee, was cancelled by the terms of an agreement filed with United States Circuit Judge Sanborn today. Two of the subsidiaries of the railroad revert to the syndicate promoting them. Judge Sanborn was expected to pass on the agreement this afternoon.

The indebtedness was in the form of notes aggregating $2,573,386, which had been given by the Frisco to Perkins, as syndicate manager of the St. Louis Union Trust company and certain collateral given to guarantee the payment of certain loans.

The notes represent the sum paid to Perkins for the New Iberia and Northern railroad, a line 120 miles long in Louisiana, which the Frisco purchased from the syndicate. This road and the New Iberia, St. Mary and Eastern revert to the syndicate. The separation from the Frisco marks a step in the reorganization of the road. The Frisco, by the terms of the agreement, recovers four blocks of land in Dallas, Texas, worth $500,000 pledged to the trust company to secure a mortgage. The Frisco also transfers to the trust company all its claims to the contracts for the construction of two branches of the St. Louis, Brownsville and Mexico railroad. Loomis C. Johnson, attorney for the receivers said the settlement reduced the system's indebtedness by more than $,000,000 and averted a long litigation.

BOTTLES OF PERFUME TO REPLACE CAMPAIGN CIGARS

Chicago March 20.— In an effort to get women voters to attend a campaign tomorrow night members of the Twenty-fifth ward democratic club announced that bottles of perfume will be distributed as souvenirs instead of the customary campaign cigars. They also announced that lace curtains will adorn the windows of the club rooms as a special mark of courtesy to the women.

CAR RUNS WILD FOR TWO MILES

One Killed, Twenty Hurt in Unusual Trolley Line Accident.

TWO MORE WILL DIE

Gasport, N. Y., March 20.—Glenn W. Bridgemann, of Lockport, N. Y., was killed and twenty persons were injured in a collision between two cars, one running wild, on the Buffalo, Lockport and Dorchester trolley line at Wickwire early today.

A Rochester bound car stopped here for orders and both motorman and conductor went into the station. From an unknown cause the car suddenly started at full speed. For two miles it ran wild. At Wickwire it crashed into a Buffalo bound car, telescoping it.

Not one of the passengers on the two cars escaped injury. At least two of the injured will die.

SLAYS THREE, THEN HIMSELF

Mentally Deranged Georgia Farmer Wipes Out Entire Family.

APPLIES THE TORCH

Oak Park, Ga., March 20.—J. A. Eubanks, a farmer living near this place, early today killed his wife and two daughters as they slept, set fire to his home and several other farm buildings, and then fired a bullet through his forehead, dying a few hours later.

Mrs. Eubanks' head was almost severed from her body with an ax. The two children, one aged 4 years, the other six months old, were killed with a knife. After slaying his family and firing the buildings on his premises, Eubanks awakened a neighbor and told him what he had done and then shot himself.

Meanwhile the blaze consumed Eubanks' barn and a number of tenants' houses. His residence was saved. Eubanks, 40 years old, is believed to have been mentally deranged.

Surgical Operation Opens Prison Doors

Edward McGrew

Columbus, Ohio, March 20.—A surgical operation, removing the pressure of bone upon the brain, opened the doors of the penitentiary for Edward McGrew. He was serving a life sentence for killing his wife. The tragedy occurred in 1909 after McGrew had been injured in a railroad accident. The state saw only the crime and took no note of the change that had turned McGrew from a kind and loving husband to a morose and sanguinary man after the accident. Gov. Cox, in pardoning him, declared that the operation had changed him back to his normal condition of sanity.

DIVE IN RIVER WINS FREEDOM

Charles Ballard, American, Escapes from Mexican Kidnapers.

TAKES A PLUNGE INTO RIO GRANDE

Cuts Ropes Which Bind Him and Gets Away in Hail of Bullets.

Austin, Texas, March 20.—Charles Ballard, an American, was kidnaped by Mexicans Wednesday from Carrizo Springs, Texas, and escaped by diving into the Rio Grande river, according to dispatches today to Gov. O. B. Colquitt. The governor has wired to know whether Texas rangers are needed in the Carrizo Springs territory.

The kidnapping was reported by W. T. Gardner, sheriff of Dimmit county, of which Carrizo Springs is the county seat. This town is about 35 miles from the border.

The Sheriff's Telegram.

Gardner's telegram to the governor, dated March 19, reads:

"Charles Ballard, American, was kidnaped from city yesterday morning at 9 o'clock by Mexicans and led by a rope around neck and hands tied behind him to Rio Grande river at mouth of San Ambrosia creek, near San Pedro ranch. When led into river, he cut the rope, freed himself and diving down stream.

WAS OLDEST FUEL MERCHANT IN CITY

J. P. Tinkham, Pioneer Coal Dealer, Passes Away at Advanced Age.

HIS LIFE ACTIVE ONE

John P. Tinkham, the oldest fuel dealer in northern Indiana, and one of Fort Wayne's pioneer business men, died suddenly at 10:30 o'clock this morning at the family residence, 833 West Main street. He was eighty-two years of age.

JOHN P. TINKHAM.

Mr. Tinkham engaged in the fuel business in Fort Wayne long before coal was burned here and before the railroads operated into the city. He was widely known and news of his death will come as a sorrowful shock to hundreds in Fort Wayne and surrounding territory. He had been in impaired health for the past ten or twelve years, but despite this fact had remained in active charge of his business, refusing to retire from active life, and only yesterday he spent the entire day at his office.

Returning home about 5 o'clock Thursday evening, he became violently ill and continued to grow more weak during the night. Medical aid failed to

GIRL VANISHED YEAR AGO TODAY

First Anniversary of Disappearance of Catherine Winters.

CLUES HAVE FAILED

Newcastle, Ind., March 20.—Today marks the first anniversary of the disappearance of little Catherine Winters, daughter of Dr. W. A. Winters, a dentist of this city. What happened to the girl is as much a mystery today as it was a year ago.

The press, police officers, private detectives and private citizens have given much time and effort in trying to find the girl, but the hundreds of reports from all parts of the country that the child had been found have proven false. So far, all the various theories advanced have failed to solve the mystery.

Shortly after the disappearance the mayor set aside a day on which the city and countryside for miles around searched every nook and cranny where the body of the girl, if she had been murdered, might have been hidden, but not a trace was found. Other theories advanced are that she was carried off by gypsies or that she was the victim of some family trouble. The relatives, however, have disclaimed all knowledge of the child's whereabouts.

Catherine, who was nine years old at the time, failed to return home after starting out to sell needles for a church charity.

EARTH OPENS; SWALLOWS MEN AND A WORK SHANTY.

Pottsville, Pa., March 20.—The earth opened and swallowed two miners and a work shanty on a mountain side at the Kehley Run colliery at Shenandoah today and although large forces of men have been put to work both inside the mines and at the surface, no trace of the men or building can be found. They may have dropped a distance of 500 feet or any portion of it and it may require weeks to learn their fate. A third man, working near the shanty at the time, saved himself by grasping a steampipe and hanging on until help arrived.

SEEK JURY TO TRY ROBERTS

Mayor of Terre Haute in Court on Election Fraud Charge.

200 WITNESSES WILL BE HEARD

All Who Enter Court Room Subjected to Search for Weapons.

Terre Haute, Ind., March 20.—Work of selecting a jury to try Mayor Donn M. Roberts on charges of corrupting elections was begun when the circuit court convened here today. A special venire of 100 men had been summoned.

That the trial may last a week or longer was indicated when the state announced that it had subpoenaed more than 100 witnesses and the defense it was said will have nearly as many. A large number of persons who have served as election officials here are among the witnesses.

Every person who enters the court room during the trial will be searched for weapons, in accordance with orders issued by the sheriff. Court officials recently received threats that they would be killed unless the prosecutions of the city officials for election frauds were stopped and two men now are held in the county jail under bond of $25,000 each, on charge of conspiring to kill Judge Fortune and Felix Blankenbaker, special judge.

BITTLER'S RACE STILL THE TOPIC

Watson Contest in 1908 is Only Recent Instance to Approach It.

THE TICKET PLEASES

Indianapolis, March 20.—The remainder of the democrats from all over Indiana, here for the state convention yesterday, departed for their homes today, apparently well satisfied with the newly-chosen state ticket.

The satisfaction over the platform adopted, however, did not appear to be so general, as a number were opposed to the state-wide direct primary plank, which was inserted on the indorsement of President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan.

The contest over the nomination for treasurer of state, which required eight ballots to settle, in favor of George A. Bittler, of Fort Wayne, was still the topic of conversation wherever democrats gathered today. Followers of state conventions in Indiana said the only contest in Indiana in recent years, where the balloting nearly approached yesterday's race, was in 1908, when James E. Watson was nominated for governor on the republican ticket. Six ballots were taken then.

Law Cannot Curb Romance, She Says

Mrs. Clarence Burns

New York, March 20.—Boston club women who are asking the legislature to place a two-year limit on courtships has neither the sympathy nor the support of Mrs. Clarence Burns, president of the Little Mothers' Aid association. "Marriage is a purely private affair," says Mrs. Burns, "and, while the proposed law might reach the man who monopolizes a girl's time for years, keep other suitors away and then jilt her, on the whole it is absurd and it interferes with the rights of the individual."

WANTED PREMIUM FOR 1600 FLIES

Anti-Fly Crusade Here is Attracting a Lot of Attention.

THE LIMIT IS REACHED

A woman who lives in Fort Wayne, and whose name is withheld because of various reasons, succeeded in swatting sixteen hundred flies and brought their carcasses to the "fly-swatting" headquarters of the Woman's League and demanded the premium offered some time ago of a half-cent each, not knowing that the limit agreed upon had expired.

It is almost impossible for one to imagine where or how a person could find sixteen hundred flies in Fort Wayne at this season of the year, yet this woman swatted that number and had the goods with her to show that she had sent them to eternity.

When told that the limit had been passed and that no premiums were being paid at this time an argument followed, the woman demanding the sum of eight dollars. Mrs. Fred McCulloch, general of all the swatters and in charge of the civic department of the Woman's League, agreed that it must have been hard work to swat sixteen hundred flies at this time of the year, but eight dollars for dead flies is a lot of cash, especially when no premium funds were on hand. An agreement was reached, however, and the woman was paid a compromise amount for the flies.

Burn the Bodies.

The carcasses of several thousand recently swatted flies that would have been great, great, great, great grandparents to billions of flies next August had they lived were incinerated Wednesday in the furnace of the Minnet Electric shop on East Washington boulevard.

These flies were purchased at a half-cent each, and now the limit, set at 3,000 first and increased to 4,000, has been reached. The club found that it could not afford to continue paying a half-cent as a premium on fly heads, but a meeting is to be held within a few days at which time arrangements will be made to pay a certain price per hundred for dead flies.

Come in by Mail.

A consignment of 225 flies was sent to Mrs. McCulloch from Martinsville, Ind., and accompanying was the following letter:

"To the Woman's League, Fort Wayne: "Am sending to you 225 March flies freshly swatted. A few more bright days will be able to send in a few thousand more."

"E. W. KETTEMAN,
"Martinsville."

Attracting Notice.

The "swat the fly" campaign engaged in by Fort Wayne club women is attracting country-wide interest and Mrs. McCulloch gets letters from all parts of the middle west asking about the anti-fly crusade. The first issue of the new progressive newspaper called "The Citizen," published at Indianapolis, devoted a large portion of space to the Fort Wayne campaign and other papers of the state have favorably commented on the activity of the local "fly swatting" leaders.

FORGER CARLTON HAS SOME RECORD

Man Under Arrest Here Put in Time in the Ohio Penitentiary.

NEWS OF THE POLICE

T. M. Carlton, alias Black and other monikers, who tried to put a worthless fifty-dollar check over on Louis Limecooley, clerk at the Wayne hotel, March 9, pleaded not guilty and waived examination in the city court today, and was bound over to the circuit court under $1,000 bond. He went to jail to await arraignment. Carlton was arrested by Officer Harry Byerle, who found on him two other checks signed T. M. Carlton and all drawn on the Hamilton National bank. Carlton tried to get Clerk Limecooley to give him a part of the face of the check and refused to leave the paper until the hotel clerk could investigate it. Mr. Limecooley notified Officer Byerle, who soon ran Carlton down. Communication with police headquarters at Toledo brought Carlton's record and rogue's gallery picture. He was sent up from Toledo in 1906 for obtaining money by false pretense, was paroled, sent back for violating his parole, was arrested in Chattanooga, Tenn., and again arrested in Toledo for larceny. In court today he calmly and politely informed the court that he "would waive arraignment under a plea of not guilty."

Ranier Pleads Guilty.

William Ranier, a barber who has been in Fort Wayne but a few weeks, was given an indefinite continuance on his plea of guilty to a loitering charge. Ranier was arrested by Detective Sergeant Peter Junk, after the fellow had been seen taking notes in front of several Calhoun street jewelry stores. He tried to dodge the officer and when apprehended on Main street broke and ran and was stopped only when the officer fired his revolver in the air. He confessed that he had fled from Chicago with a diamond ring worth $250 that a "lady friend" was permitting him to wear. He says he sold the ring in Warsaw for $80. In court he said he had meant no harm by loitering on the street and was given a chance.

Other City Court Cases.

Jim McNamara, who had been loafing about town for some time and appeared at the police station drunk and wanted lodgings, was let go on a drunk charge with a warning to find work or clear the city.

William Huled and Harvey Cash, who had just blown in on a Nickel Plate train from Chicago when arrested last night by Detective Sergeant Immel, were booked for loitering. Huled tried to be smart with the officer and this morning was continued until tomorrow while Cash was released and told to get out of town.

CITY COURT OVERHAULED.

New Furniture and Rearrangement Makes Appearance Better.

The city court was resplendent in new furniture and made strange in aspect by a complete rearrangement this morning. A new desk for the judge, another for the court bailiff and a specially constructed table for the use of the prosecutor, city clerk and the police reporters, together with new chairs for the high functionaries, imparted such a glow of clean wood and gleaming varnish as dazzled the eyes. The judge's desk has been moved to the west side of the room and it is flanked by the bailiff's desk, both of them being well elevated on a new platform. A new floor will be placed in the court room soon.

CONTRACTOR DIES SUDDENLY.

P. P. McCormick, of Columbus, Expires in Danville Hotel.

Danville, Ind., March 20.—P. P. McCormick, 72, of Columbus, one of the best known building contractors in Indiana, died suddenly in a hotel here today. He was engaged in constructing the court house here. Mr. McCormick erected some of the Rose Polytechnic buildings at Terre Haute and also did most of the contract work at the Indiana reformatory at Jeffersonville.

The body will be taken to Columbus for burial.

ASKS CABINET IMPEACHMENT.

Address to the Throne Stirs Japanese Scandals.

Tokio, March 20.—The impeachment of the Japanese cabinet on account of the recent naval scandals in connection with the receipt of illicit commissions by naval officers was asked today in an address to the throne introduced in the chamber of deputies by the opposition parties. The address declares that the "scandals" are a stain on the newly begun reign of the emperor and are harmful to the prestige of the Japanese navy, both at home and abroad.

BIG SHOE STRIKE CALLED.

Portsmouth Makers Demanded Signing of "No Strike" Agreement.

Portsmouth, Ohio, March 20.—After an all-night session the joint council of the United Shoe Workers of America, this morning called a strike in the factories operated by the Selby, Drew and Excelsior companies in this city. Approximately 4,000 employes are affected. The conclusion came as a result by abrogation by the manufacturers of an agreement between employers and employes.

The employers demanded that all employes sign a new "no strike" agreement for a period of six months or be discharged.

The New Zealand Farmers' union asks government aid for procuring more laborers, more than 6,000 workers being needed.

BRACKENRIDGE HOME IS SOLD

Judge Rose Buys Harrison Street Property for Clients.

THE PRICE WAS $35,000

Representing what is rumored to be large financial interests, Judge James H. Rose this morning purchased the old Brackenridge homestead, corner of Brackenridge and Harrison streets, from Receiver Charles A. Spanley, of the bankrupt Hanna-Brackenridge firm. The consideration was $35,000.

Judge Rose refused to make public either the names of those he represented in the deal or the style of improvements to be made on the property, but intimated that the purchasing interests have in mind certain plans for developing the property.

The property fronts 150 feet on Harrison street and 140 feet on Brackenridge and contains two buildings, one of which was built by the late Judge Joseph Brackenridge and was known as the Brackenridge homestead.

Owing to the construction of the new Pennsylvania station at the foot of Harrison street, real estate interests regarded the Brackenridge property as a valuable site, and many attempts to purchase the property had been made prior to the closing of the sale this morning. Judge Rose states that he will be at liberty to make known the new owners within a short time. The property, it is said, had been listed among other assets in the bankruptcy schedules filed by the Hanna-Brackenridge company.

"GREAT IDENTIFIER" DEAD.

Perrin H. Sumner Succumbs to Heart Disease in Subway Train.

New York, March 20.—An elderly man believed to be Perrin H. Sumner, who was once well known to the police as "The Great American Identifier," died of heart disease in a subway train late last night. Sumner won the title in the late nineties by identifying unclaimed bodies of suicides as a mythical Englishman named Edgar. The identifications always proved false and what he wanted of a dead Englishman named Edgar always remained a mystery. Sumner was involved in many difficulties in this and other cities through his financial operations and served a term in Sing Sing for grand larceny.

Hydro-Aeroplane Service Between San Francisco and Oakland.

San Francisco, March 20.—A regular hydro-aeroplane service between this city and Oakland will be inaugurated soon and the state board of harbor commissioners approved today of a terminal station here for this service. The landing platform will be constructed by Aviators Welden Cooke and L. Y. Lekas, who announced that they would make half hourly trips between this city and Oakland during the day.

The hydro-aeroplanes, each of which is capable of carrying three persons, are on their way here from the east and the service is expected to begin within a month.

Only 157 Men of Unemployed Army of 1,500 Yet at Sacramento.

Sacramento, Cal., March 20.—In the camp of the unemployed north of Sacramento there were today but 157 men, the remnant of the army of 1,500 unemployed which invaded Sacramento nearly two weeks ago.

There has been no trouble and none is expected. Four special deputies keep watch over them. They assured the officials they would obey the laws and assist in preserving order.

They also informed the district attorney that they had money to pay for food without foraging.

NOTED SCIENTIST DEAD.

Adolph Francis A. Badelier Passes Away at Madrid.

New York, March 20.—Announcement of the death in Madrid, Spain, yesterday of Adolph Francis A. Badelier, 74, one of the foremost authorities on archaeology in the United States, is contained in a cablegram made public today.

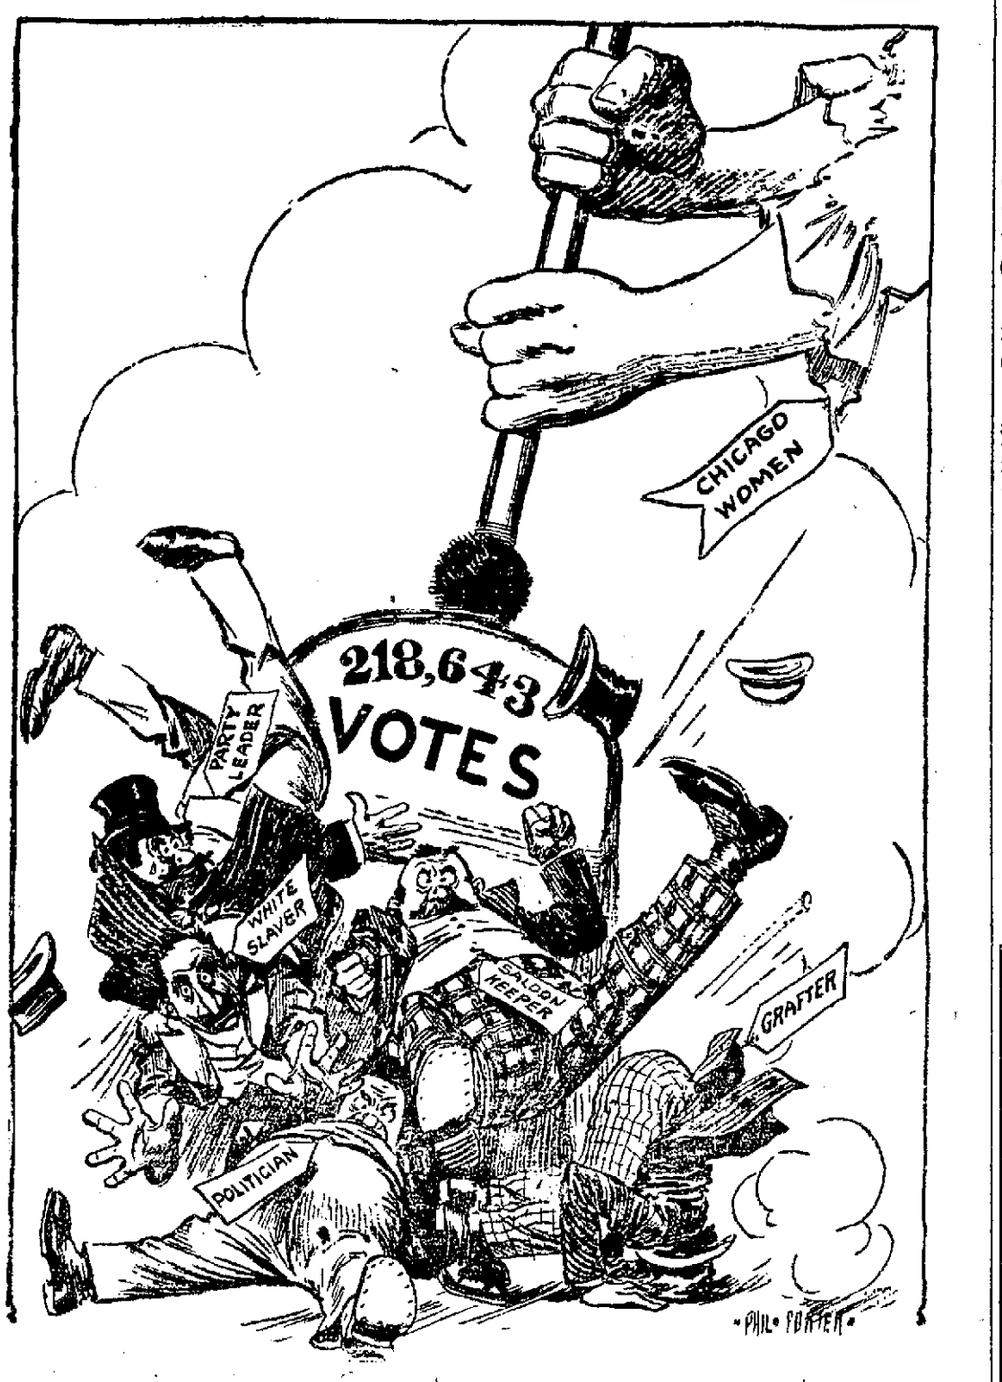
He went to Spain last year to examine for the historical society into the archives of that country.

NEW ALTITUDE RECORD.

Johannisthal, March 20.—The altitude record of 12,303 feet for a flight with three passengers was established today from the aerodrome here by Robert Thelen, the German aviator.

The previous record for a flight in an aeroplane carrying three passengers was held by the French aviator, Garaix, who on March 2 attained an altitude of 10,890 feet at Chartres.

THE NEW BROOM!



Over 218,000 women have registered in Chicago to vote for the first time in the coming spring municipal elections.—News Item.

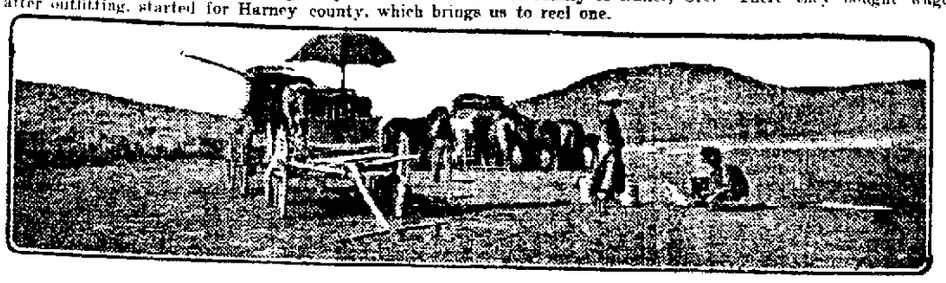
BACK TO THE FARM—A LITTLE HOMESTEAD DRAMA OF LIFE IN THE FAR WEST—IN FOUR REELS.

Caste—Mr. Jas. C. Williams and Family.
Scene—Southeastern part of Harney County, Oregon.

PRELUDE.

The back to the farm wave hit Jas. C. Williams, of Kansas City, Mo., in 1908, and he decided to go west and take up a homestead. Selling out his little grocery business he took the family to Baker, Ore. There they bought wagons and after outfitting, started for Harney county, which brings us to reel one.



REEL ONE.

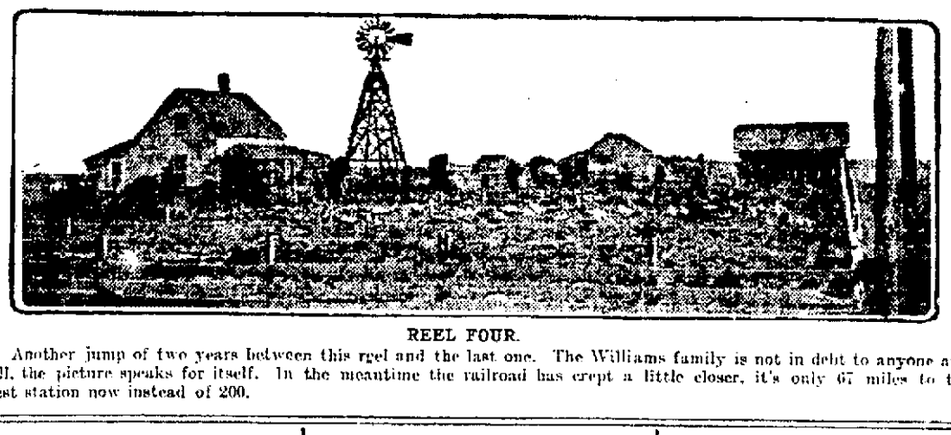
With three other homestead-hunters, Jas. C. Williams, of Missouri, arrives in southern Harney county and locates some good looking farming land. Here they camp. Most of the folks are out of sight, but the feaure of this film is results and not folks. Take a close look at the barren, rolling country and wait a moment while the operator changes reels.

REEL TWO.

Here's the Williams homestead. Yes, that's the tent they lived in the first summer and there's the little two-room shack, the lumber for which was hauled 50 miles. This year they were so busy clearing sage brush and getting ready for regular farming that they didn't have much time to fix up the place, but they are making progress. Now just a moment please.

REEL THREE.

This reel was taken in 1911—a jump of two years since the last exposure. Two crops, two years of work and—well take a look. The Williams family has moved to the right of where they first lived. Their new house is a little larger than the old one and they have put up a lot of little barns to house their crops and supplies, chickens and cows. James tired of running the hand pump so he bought a cheap little wind mill. He's getting prosperous.



REEL FOUR.

Another jump of two years between this reel and the last one. The Williams family is not in debt to anyone and—well, the picture speaks for itself. In the meantime the railroad has crept a little closer, it's only 67 miles to the nearest station now instead of 200.

HAS COLLECTION OF WASHINGTON'S

Personal Relics Possessed by Descendant of Mrs. Custis.

GOWNS AND JEWELRY

Washington, March 20.—Were all the locks of hair once supposed to have adorned the head of the Father of his Country gathered together, it is said, there would be sufficient stuffing for a mattress.

Today almost any city possesses a shopkeeper who has a sword which once belonged to Washington and which "was sold by a member of his family who had seen better days." One who can show any authenticated relic is lucky.

Such a person is Miss Nannie Randolph Heth, president of the Southern Relief Society of Washington and well known in social circles here. Not only has she an unusual collection but is able to trace the articles from the time when they belonged to John Park Custis, son of Mrs. Martha Washington. Mr. Custis, who married Miss Eleanor Calvert, had four children. The eldest, Eliza Park Custis, was married to a Mr. Law and left one child. Eliza Law, who was married to Nicholas Rogers of Baltimore. It was from their daughter, Elenor Agnes Rogers, afterward Mrs. George R. Goldsborough, that Miss Heth inherited her present heirlooms. The loss of an only child, a little girl of three, left Mr. and Mrs. Goldsborough bereft, and Miss Heth, then about the same age as their own child, became a daughter to them.

Lock of His Hair.

Among the many relics, the majority of which take the form of jewelry and clothing, is a breastpin, once belonging to Martha Washington. It is a small oval in blue enamel and pearls. In the center of one side is a small miniature of General Washington and on the reverse a lock of his hair. It lies in a tiny morocco case and still visible on the satin lining is an account in Mrs. Goldsborough's fading writing of its history.

A camp tumbler used by George Washington is another of the interesting pieces. It is an ordinary silver goblet, on one side of which is engraved: "One of the camp tumblers of General Washington when he fought for the liberty of his country, and used on his toilet after the war." On the reverse side is inscribed: "The gift of Mrs. Washington to her granddaughter, Eliza Park Custis, after the father of his family and his country was no more." Underneath, on one side is the Washington coat of arms; on the other the initials "G. W."

Martha Washington's diamond earrings are also among the possessions of Miss Heth and she wears them on special occasions. It is notable that they are quite in style now, being diamond pendants, suspended from a round cluster that covers the lobe of the ear. When Miss Heth wears these earrings, she usually wears also a set of shoe buckles which used to adorn the shoes of George Washington himself. They are large crystals set in an almost square buckle. To match this is another and smaller set belonging to Miss Heth, which were used by Washington in his knee breeches.

Martha Fond of Jewels.

Another piece of jewelry in this collection is a moss agate button, one of several mounted in gold, which at one time adorned Washington's dress coat. There are also a pair of earrings, a bracelet and a necklace, all of moss agate, which Mrs. Washington had made especially to wear on such occasions as her husband used his of similar design.

Several other sets of earrings in the possession of Miss Heth would indicate that Mrs. Washington was fond of jewelry and had taste in choosing it. One set is of coral. From a tiny gold chain is suspended a gold filigree ball of delicate workmanship, studded closely with tiny bits of coral. Still another set is of carnelian, milk white, with long drops suspended in gold frames.

Among the belongings of George Washington is to be found a match box of lapis luzli. It is oblong, tapering toward the end, and from the top protrudes a contrivance intended for striking matches on. Aside from the quality of the lapis adorning it, this relic is interesting as showing the type of match boxes used in the time of Washington.

Furniture, too, is to be found. There is an old desk, the front of which lets down to form a writing table, while on top stand bookcases with leaded glass doors. There is also one old colonial table.

There is also a punch bowl in cut glass, standing upon a base several inches high.

RECOMMENDS CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

"I take pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to my customers because I have confidence in it. I find that they are pleased with it and call for it when again in need of such a medicine," writes J. W. Sexson, Montevallo, Mo. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

HAS INSATIABLE CRAZE FOR FOOD

Loses His Job Because He Stopped Too Often to Eat.

IS GROWING THINNER

Chicago, March 20.—Here is a man who has appealed to the public for means of curbing his appetite and who lost his job because he ate so often and could not attend to his work.

Leo Nachtsheim, when called upon, was staring gloomingly at eight empty plates on the kitchen table in his home at No. 614 Ferdinand avenue, Forest Park. He had just completed his breakfast—and the plates had been emptied by him of two good-sized pieces of steak, six rolls, pieces of pumpernickel bread, five wheat cakes, slices of boiled ham, which were followed by three cups of coffee and a glass of milk.

"Will I never get enough to eat?" he moaned, as he tightened up his belt. "I feel as though I had gone without food for a week."

As he spoke, his sister, Mrs. Guy Bouts, entered the kitchen.

"Why, you don't eat as much as my 6-year-old daughter," she told him. "You haven't got an appetite."

"Well, maybe I don't eat much at home," he said, "but you ought to see me when I get some exercise."

Nachtsheim is 27 years old and claims to be the champion eater of the world. He said the more he ate, however, the thinner he got. He said at times he would have to go to five or six different restaurants for a single meal in order to avoid the embarrassment of being singled out as an unusual eater.

"All my trouble is duet to intestinal hysteria," he explained. "My insides have gone mad. Six months ago I weighed 162 pounds. I have eaten nearly a ton of food a week, but in spite of that I now weigh only 130 pounds and I am still shrinking.

"I am driven desperate by my appetite. Something must be done. I can not sleep nights because of my craving for food. I have tried all ways to reduce my appetite without avail."

TO THE HOUSEWIFE.

Madam, if your husband is like most men he expects you to look after the health of yourself and children. Coughs and colds are the most common of the minor ailments and are most likely to lead to serious diseases. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when it has a cold. If you will inquire into the merits of the various remedies that are recommended for coughs and colds, you will find that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy stands high in the estimation of people who use it. It is prompt and effectual, pleasant and safe to take, which are qualities especially to be desired when a medicine is intended for children. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

THE SENTINEL'S DAILY SCRIPTURE READING.

Matthew 21:33-46.

33 Hear another parable: There was a certain householder which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country;

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it.

35 And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

36 Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they did unto them likewise.

37 But last of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son.

38 But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.

39 And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

40 When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?

41 They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

42 Jesus said unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

44 And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

45 And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them.

46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet.

FRIDAY, MARCH 20, 1914.

The Platform and the Ticket

The Sentinel does not believe there is the remotest doubt but that the work of the democratic state convention, both as to platform enunciations and in the ticket it placed in nomination will commend itself strongly to the people of Indiana. As a whole it will not only be eminently satisfactory to members of the democratic party, but what is also important, it combines the elements that are likely to make a strong appeal to the independent voter in Indiana. This does not mean that either platform or ticket completely satisfy each individual democrat, or that there were not personal disappointments in the outcome. That condition is never absent. Political action is at best largely compromise, but judged by and large the performance of the representatives of Indiana democracy is altogether creditable.

The outstanding feature of the platform is, of course, the declaration in favor of a state-wide primary law. That the action in this direction was taken at the behest of President Wilson and Secretary Bryan, supported by practically the solid Indiana delegation in congress, in no wise discounts its status as an accepted party principle in the present campaign. Many state leaders of the party were pronouncedly against it, Mayor Bell, as chairman of the resolutions committee, going to the length of expressing the belief that its adoption made the committee the "pall-bearers" of party hopes. We do not believe there is warrant for the assumption in some quarters that the rank and file of the party opposes the primary system, for we do not believe they have been given opportunity to express themselves on the proposition. That it will entail public expense not now borne under the convention system is unquestionably true, and that its success or failure will depend largely on how generally voters embrace the opportunity to express their preference at the primary polls is equally apparent. That the step is a progressive one, however, is not to be doubted. Other platform declarations are in close conformity with pre-convention forecasts and touch definitely upon practically all the important state issues, and they are strikingly free from evasion.

The ticket is a representative one. It is a blending of old faces and new, in which geographical location figures less than usual, but which presents unquestioned strength, both individually and as a whole. There was but one prolonged struggle for nomination, and determined as that proved to be, there is little or no evidence of bitterness as the outcome. Here in the Twelfth district there will be especial cause for gratification over the convention's work. The nomination of George A. Bittler, of Fort Wayne, for treasurer of state, and Frank M. Powers, of Angola, for judge of the appellate court, will contribute immensely to the strength of the ticket in Northeastern Indiana. The achievement of Mr. Bittler was little short of phenomenal. This young man, in his first foray into state politics, not only led a field of seven candidates at the outset, but battled his way to victory through eight long and gruelling ballots. Mr. Bittler and the loyal forces behind him achieved no mean triumph, and they have fairly earned the congratulations that are being showered upon them. These, too, will come quite as sincerely from Mr. Bittler's friends in other parties as from those in his own.

From the very outset, we think, both platform and ticket will be accorded a very favorable reception in the opinion of Indiana voters. That favorable opinion, too, is likely to become more firmly entrenched as the campaign progresses.

PRESS ON SLASHING OF THE ROKEBY VENUS.

Government's Deficiency.

Cleveland Plain Dealer: "Such outrages as the slashing of the Rokeby Venus may have an effect not dreamed of by the wild women. They may bring about the downfall of a government whose most serious deficiency has been its leniency and mistaken gentleness."

Crime Their Creed.

Syracuse Post Standard: "Mrs. Pankhurst jeered at the British government for its powerlessness, and well she might. She and her followers have made crime their creed, the promotion of anarchy their party policy."

Deportation.

Philadelphia Ledger: "Deportation for crime has gone out of the political fashion in Great Britain and her appanages, and at this time there are many who regret that such is the case."

In the United States.

Pittsburg Sun: "Here in the United States a fair measure of success has been attained by the woman suffrage movement because it has been conducted in a rational way."

The Penal Colonies.

Wilmington Journal: "It may be that, all else failing, the British government finally will round up all the militants and send them to one of its penal colonies and keep them there, regardless of their protests and hunger strikes."

One More Argument.

Boston Herald: "One more good argument for the transporting of British art treasures to this country."

Such a Spectacle.

Troy Northern Budget: "The world has never before seen such a spectacle as Britain, on whose dominions the sun never sets, being turned topsy turvy by about 200 persons, mostly women."

The Parallel.

Detroit Free Press: "A few years ago the British government stamped out rabies by muzzling all the dogs in the United Kingdom. The parallel between the canines and the militants is surely plain enough to need no elucidation."

ANCIENT LAW AND MODERN QUESTIONS.

(Kansas City Star.)

It has been pointed out that a federal constitutional amendment for woman's suffrage is practically impossible. Its adoption would have to be by the legislature or state conventions of thirty-six states—after two-thirds of the members of both houses of congress had resolved in favor of it.

The income tax amendment and the amendment for direct senatorial elections were adopted only after very much more than half a century of pretty steady demand. Indeed, the power of income taxation had been assumed to be an original constitutional power from the earliest days until it was invalidated by the supreme court's decision of 1894.

The suffrage question serves to illustrate the hindrance to development that lies in the prevailing method of constitutional amendment. If the people don't want woman suffrage, or if they do want it, they should be able to state their wish in law more quickly than they are now enabled to state it. That is true of all questions of important public policy.

Of course, some supreme court may at almost any time change a constitutional interpretation in almost any regard. But it is neither safe nor satisfactory to depend on extraordinary judicial power to harmonize an ancient law with a modern necessity.

Whitley County News.

Columbia City, Ind., March 20.—The eighth grade pupils of the public schools are publishing a bi-weekly paper, ten "reporters" being on the job constantly, and Miss Spafford, teacher of the grade, acting as editor. The paper is printed on the latter's typewriter and contains all the social news of the class. The circulation is limited to the eighth grade. After each "going to press" one is promptly sent to their sick classmate, Merrill Doriot, who has been confined indoors for three months and who will not be able to venture out of doors for several weeks.

Mrs. Samuel Sickafoose, of South Whitley, who has been afflicted with paralysis for some time, has been taken to the soldiers' home at Lafayette, where she will receive the best of care and attention. The unfortunate lady is 76 years of age.

Mrs. Jesse Elliot and little son, of Eaton, Ind., arrived in the city Thursday to visit her aunt, Mrs. J. H. Meredith, and family.

Mrs. Theodore Essig, of South Whitley, was released from the county jail Wednesday evening and taken to the home of her brother, George Ream, of Larwill, where she will receive the best of medical attention and care in an effort to restore her to her former health and poise.

Mrs. Foy Hull, who has been suffering from a severe attack of quinsy, was much improved Thursday.

Miss Hazel Schinbeckle went to Fort Wayne Thursday noon to spend the day with friends.

H. M. Miller, of this city, who is engaged in the hardware and automobile business, may launch into still another enterprise, having secured an option for ninety days on the Erdman and Wynkoop brick yards in this city.

Mrs. Edward Erdman was given an agreeable surprise Wednesday evening at the hands of her fellow members of the Sewing club, who came with baskets loaded to overflowing with good things to eat for supper. The evening was spent at "500" and whist.

Mrs. Samuel Heintzleman, of Kendallville, visited Thursday with Mrs. Jacob Heintzleman, of Etna.

The Hebrew Ladies' Whist club was entertained Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Dan Daniel.

Abe Green returned Thursday from Goshen, where he visited several days with his daughter, Mrs. Jesse Rummel.

Henry Ney, of this city, and Theodore Mayer, of South Whitley, went to Fort Wayne Thursday to attend the funeral of Aaron Greensfelder.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Baum, of Ligonier, and Mr. and Mrs. Lew Allman, of Chicago, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Daniel.

The diphtheria epidemic in the Coesse schools and neighborhood has subsided and only one home, that of W. H. Cartwright, is now under quarantine, that being probationary.

The dental firm of Kenner & Widup has dissolved partnership, the same to take effect Thursday. Both doctors will open parlors in the city as soon as arrangements can be completed.

William Bowdy, of South Whitley, spent Thursday in this city visiting friends and transacting business.

State Field Boy Scout Commissioner J. O. Wetzel, of Logansport, will visit this city next Monday evening, March 23, to make an inspection of the local troop. The company, which is a large one, has been training faithfully for several months and is in fine trim.

Mrs. Nell Ball-Ferguson, who underwent an operation for pelvic trouble, has rallied nicely from the operation and will soon regain her former health.

Mrs. Keziah Knisely, who lives with her granddaughter, Mrs. Wallace Wilcox, northwest of the city, is critically ill with general senility. She is 97 years of age and chances for recovery are much against her.

Lewis Wetzel received a telegram Wednesday evening informing him that his mother, Mrs. John Wetzel, had died at Emmitsburg, Mo. She was 86 years of age.

Mrs. Margaret Snyder is confined to her bed with a serious case of pneumonia, and her condition is considered grave.

Miss Ida Saurers has left for Paris, Ill., to visit a few days with her sister, Mrs. Ray Lawrence, and family.

William Edwards, clerk at the Wayne hotel, leaves Saturday morning for Butte, Mont., in the hope of benefiting his health.

Mrs. Margaret Stolte, vice state oracle of the Royal Neighbors lodge, has returned from Crawfordsville where she attended a state meeting.

Girls Often Wonder Why Men Hesitate

In asking them to marry. How do men figure things out when in love? How do they look at girls? What makes men "pull back"? Girls wonder, but men won't talk. Here they do: straight out, too. And it makes mighty good reading.

BITTLER WINS IN GREAT RACE

Triumph Comes to the Fort Wayne Young Man on the Eighth Ballot.

FIVE HOURS' BATTLE

STATE TICKET NAMED BY INDIANA DEMOCRATS.

United States Senator—B. F. Shively, South Bend.
Secretary of State—Homer L. Cook, Indianapolis.
Treasurer of State—George A. Bittler, Fort Wayne.
Auditor of State—Dale J. Crittenberger, Anderson.
State Superintendent of Public Instruction—Charles A. Greathouse, Indianapolis.
Attorney General—Richard M. Milburn, of Jasper.
State Geologist—To come.
Clerk of Supreme and Appellate Courts—To come.
Judge Supreme Court—Moses B. Lairy, Logansport.
Judges Appellate Court—First ristrict, Judge M. B. Hottel, Salem; Judge Edward W. Felt, Greencastle. Second district—Judge Joseph G. Ibach, Hammond; Judge Francis S. Caldwell, Winchester; Frank M. Powers, Angola.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 20.—It was at the end of a gruelling struggle of five hours' duration that George A. Bittler, of Fort Wayne, was nominated for state treasurer by the democratic state convention here last night. Bittler's race was a brilliant one, and when on the eighth ballot it was seen he had secured a total of 1,009 votes, his nomination was made unanimous before the result of the ballot was announced. Then the weary, but still enthusiastic Bittler boomers from Allen county and the Twelfth district staged another of the vociferous demonstrations for their candidate that had frequently characterized the long struggle.

Led From the Outset.

Bittler led from the first ballot and was never headed. The result of the first ballot gave the Fort Wayne man 431 votes. Other candidates ranked as follows: Lauenstein, 312; Morris, 221; Isenbarger, 250; Bernethy, 168; O'Connor, 288; MacComber, 166.

For four succeeding ballots there was little change save that Bittler increased his vote slowly while O'Connor for a time came up strongly from behind.

The sixth ballot also failed to bring a decision in the contest. With Bittler still in the lead and O'Connor second, the vote was: Lauenstein, 233; Bittler, 850; Morris, 1; Isenbarger, 1; O'Connor, 751.

Another demonstration by the O'Connor and Bittler forces marked the announcement of the sixth ballot. Supporters of the two centered their work on the Lauenstein district in an effort to win over some of the counties by trades. It was several minutes before the seventh roll call could be started.

The deadlock for the nomination remained unbroken at the conclusion of the seventh ballot. Bittler and O'Connor still led, but Lauenstein's supporters started a demonstration while waiting the announcement of the result, which was: Lauenstein, 232; Bittler, 876; O'Connor, 728; Morris, out; Isenbarger, out.

Lacked But 43 Votes.

Bittler lacked forty-three votes of being nominated on this ballot, 919 being required. The vote was see-sawing with first Bittler and then O'Connor gaining on each other. On the sixth ballot O'Connor gained 34 on Bittler and on the seventh Bittler made a gain of 49 on his nearest opponent.

Bittler made steady gains on each roll call and with 1,009 votes finally wore down the opposition. Thomas W. O'Connor, of the Tenth district, with 672½ votes, was second and Fred J. Lauenstein, of the First district, with 154½ votes, was third. MacComber withdrew and Morris, Bernethy and Isenbarger dropped out.

Named Unanimous.

Bittler was unanimously nominated after the eighth ballot. Charles J. Murphy, chairman of the Tenth district, made the motion and it was seconded by Benj. Bosse, chairman of the First district.

Chairman Murphy moved to make the nomination unanimous before the vote was announced. Nominations for attorney general were called for immediately and Major Menzies, of Posey county, named George W. Curtis, of Mount Vernon; John W. Cravens, of Monroe county, nominated Edwin M. Corr, of Bloomington, and State Senator Bomar Traylor, of Jasper, placed Richard M. Milburn, also of Jasper, in nomination.

There was no choice for attorney general on the first ballot, the vote being: Corr, 504 2-3; Milburn, 861 2-3; Curtis, 479 2-3. Milburn lacked 67 1-3 votes of being nominated.

Richard M. Milburn was nominated for attorney general on the second ballot. Vote: Curtis, 389 2-3; Milburn, 1,022 2-3; Corr, 423 2-3.

Senator Curtis moved that the nomination be made unanimous, which was carried.

J. Fred France, of Huntington, defeated Senator Harry Grube, of Plymouth, for clerk of the supreme court on the first ballot. The vote was: France, 942½; Grube, 871½.

The last candidate chosen was state geologist and Edward Barrett, of Plainfield, defeated W. G. Beatty, of Indianapolis, by a vote of 1,197 to 639. The convention then adjourned at 9:35 p. m.

FOR THE STOMACH AND LIVER.

I. N. Stuart, West Webster, N. Y., writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Tablets for disorders of the stomach and liver off and on for the past five years, and it affords me pleasure to state that I have found them to be just as represented. They are mild in their action and the results have been satisfactory. I value them highly." For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

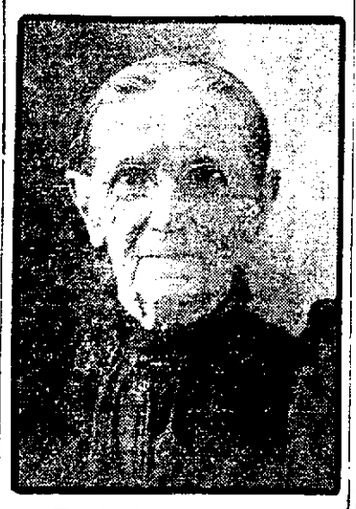
CELEBRATES HER 88th BIRTHDAY



MRS. MAGDALENA RABUS.

Attaining the advanced age of eighty-eight years with her mental faculties unimpaired and with body still vigorous and well, Mrs. Magdalena Rabus, who makes her home with a son, George A. Rabus, of West Third street, celebrated the anniversary of her birth on Thursday, March 19. The members of the Ladies' Aid society of Trinity Lutheran church, of which Mrs. Rabus is a charter member, enjoyed the afternoon with her at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Rabus, who also live in West Third street. Mrs. Magdalena Rabus is the oldest member of the aid society and her interest in church work is in no wise diminished by her years though she is not so active naturally as she was in her younger days. But Mrs. Rabus is remarkably active and as an illustration was an incident of recent weeks when being out of doors with one of her grandsons she demonstrated her agility by sliding on her feet for a few steps in response to a jesting remark that she probably could not do so. "I'm not so stiff yet," remarked this well preserved but elderly woman of nearly four score and ten. Mrs. Rabus has lived in Allen county for more than fifty years. She is a native of Germany and though she loves her mother tongue the best, she speaks English fluently. The ladies of the aid society sent her a beautiful pink azazalia, in full blossom, as a token of their regard and she also received many tokens of love from her children and grandchildren. The children of Mrs. Rabus are the two sons already mentioned and the following daughters: Mrs. L. M. Blumenthaler, of Logansport; Mrs. Louise Young and Mrs. William Schaphorst, of Fort Wayne.

MISS MAY IRWIN AT MAJESTIC.

Favorite Comedienne Entertains in "Widow by Proxy."

One long laugh from beginning to end was the result on most of the audience of Miss May Irwin's inimitable comedy and infectious laugh when she presented her new role of "Widow by Proxy" at the Majestic last evening. May Irwin needs no description nor new praise in this city for no greater comedy favorite comes to the legitimate stage than she. In her present vehicle she is as entertaining as ever, especially to those who have not seen her in plays less farcical than the present. As always, Miss Irwin has excellent support in her associate players of whom Miss Clara Blandick as Dolores comes in for especial praise, though by that no depreciation of the work of the rest of the company is meant.

AT THE MAJESTIC.

William Hodge in "The Road to Happiness" Saturday Evening Only.

Mr. Wm. Hodge will come to the Majestic theater Saturday for one night only in "The Road to Happiness."

In this play Mr. Hodge has found an excellent medium to express his genial and pleasing personality. Hodge has the stage the majority of the time, and with his slow drawl and humorous mannerisms gives the audience a chance again to relish the qualities which endeared him as "The Man From Home."

The scene of the play is a village in northern New York and its story involves the types of character common to the small communities of the semi-rural sections of the country. Placed in contrast in the development of the plot are the village banker, suave and calculating in his vain attempt to win the love of a village belle; the minister, whose clerical work is based largely on and in favor of the chief contributors to his support; the town magnate, who by virtue of his wealth and position seeks to order to his own measure the actions of his family and also of all his neighbors as well. These and other types make up the round of characters in which Jim Whitman, as played by Mr. Hodge, becomes, by the strength of his cheerful willingness to give his wise aid and advice to those in trouble a dominant figure. Whitman's introduction is in the role of a country boy who has only a cheerful belief in himself and unyielding faith in the triumph of truth and an invalid mother. How Jim loves the daughter of the village magnate and how her father plots to force her into marriage with the banker; how a conspiracy is formed to rid the town of Jim by giving him a coat of tar and feathers and the primitive hide upon a rail and how Jim turns the tables upon his enemies and brings them in the end to recognize his true nature, are the elements of a story in which heart interest, humor, homely philosophy and stirring incidents are deftly mingled.

Seat Sale Monday for George Arliss in "Disraeli."

Mr. George Arliss and his company, under the management of the Liebler company, comes to the Majestic Thursday evening in Louis N. Parker's comedy, "Disraeli."

Mr. Parker shows Disraeli at a period when he is no more the spectacular young dew, the author of romantic novels and the wearer of startling waistcoats, but an astute statesman, whose warmth of oriental imagination is concentrated on making his country an imperial power. The historic incident of the buying of the Suez canal from the dissolute Khedive of Egypt, and the saving to England thereby of the short route to India, is chosen by Mr. Parker as the central theme of the play. The intrigue that arises is absolutely dramatic and deeply interesting. Incidental to this political plot is a delightful love story, and the shrewd statesman is shown making a man of a young aristocrat that he might be worthy the heart and hand of a true English damsel.

The production is elaborate scenically and the costumes of the period, the early 70's, lend the play attractive pictorial qualities.

Mr. Arliss' company includes Violet Heming, Margaret Dale, Florence Arliss, Leila Repton, Lilla Campbell, Charles Harbury, Arthur Eldred, Henry Carvill, Oscar Ayde, Dudley Digges and others.

AT THE TEMPLE

A tiptop, all round bill of fun and other entertainment of a lively sort is what the Temple theater started yesterday afternoon. From start to finish there is one big laugh. The photo-play is a peach for amusement. A "lady cop" gets into more trouble than could ever take place in so short a time as it takes to see it and the audience laughs right out loud about it. Then the Lelliott Brothers come out with a list of musical things of "yesterday, today and tomorrow" that is as unique and funny as anything that's come this way. One of the men is a clown and the other the gentleman. But say, they can play some. Then following are the juvenile stars not yet too grown up to look like kids. They are Bud and Nellie Heim. Bud gets off a lot of horse play, including some acrobatic work that is really good, and Nellie sings and dances well enough to fill in the rest spots when Bud needs time to breathe. Both work hard and bring lots of applause.

The "Belles of Seville" is the act beautiful of the bill. Spanish and Moorish dances are executed with much grace, the costuming is beautiful and the entire effect classy all through the act.

Butler Haviland and Alice Thornton have a dandy act in their "Get-Poor-Quick-Wellington." It is not a travesty on the Wallingford play, as one might suppose, but a clever musical comedy in which both Miss Thornton and Mr. Haviland appear to excellent advantage and make good with the audiences. The Dorlans close the bill with a comedy acrobatic pantomime in which the comedy is now and takes first place, the acrobatic part, while in no way inferior, showing less that is different from other acts of the kind. But the fun is there in plenty.

AT THE EMPRESS

Tonight is the big extra added affair at the Empress. Since these "Country Stores" were inaugurated at the Empress they have grown in popularity, but there still remains but one place to see this big gift distribution made properly and that is at the Empress. Tonight's "store" will surpass anything previously given in the matter of gifts. There is one surprise package for someone, while some man will profit by the annexation of a new tailored suit. This will be in the form of an order for any suiting on one of the leading tailors of the city. Of course there will be stacks of other interesting and useful gifts, all worth carrying home. Grant Gardner, the Empress' inimitable blackface comedian, will assist in the conduct of the store and plenty of fun can be looked for. Seats are in early demand for tonight's big event, and reservation should be made early by all prospective patrons. Saturday brings the big jubilee matinee for children, when all youngsters under twelve years of age will be admitted for five cents.

Starting the new week, Kinkaid's Kilties, numbering eleven, will topline the new bill, with the Three Harby's, skaters on real ice, as an added feature. As always, the Empress will continue to furnish Fort Wayne with her bulk of amusement.

THINGS WORTH REMEMBERING.

To disguise the unpleasant taste of Epsom salts, drop in a little lemon juice. Or drink it in water as hot as you can, and pinch your nostrils together while drinking. Keep the mouth closed a moment after drinking. You will get no taste of the salts at all.

Before baking potatoes, let them stand in hot water for fifteen minutes. They will require only half the time for baking, are more mealy and palatable, and if they are baked in a gas oven the saving in gas is considerable.

The most difficult of all stains to take out are those made by coffee. With care, however, the stain can be removed from the most delicate silk or woolen fabrics. Rub the mark gently with a little pure glycerine, then rinse it in lukewarm water, lay a cloth over the damp part on the wrong side, and press with a cool iron until dry. Do not wet more of the material than is absolutely necessary.

When washing silk handkerchiefs a little care is required to prevent them from turning yellow, and to avoid this they should never be boiled or have any soap rubbed on them. Make a lather of finely-shredded white soap and lukewarm water, wash and squeeze the handkerchiefs in it; press out all the moisture possible and dry them quickly. Iron while they are still damp, though not wet.

A New Howard Watch

THE E. HOWARD WATCH WORKS begs to announce for limited sale, a new watch—the HOWARD 12-size Carvel, 17-j ewel, extra-thin, open face, solid gold, at fifty-five dollars.

This new watch is thinner by one and one-third millimeters than the regular 12-size extra-thin HOWARD. The movement is adjusted to three positions, temperature, and isochronism; cased in a single-joint solid gold case of special design, exceedingly flat and compact.

Selling complete in 14K solid gold case at $55—it is the only gold cases, 12-size HOWARD that you can buy for less than $75.

The small number that we are able to offer this year is due to the time and care given to all HOWARD movements and the necessarily limited output of an organization devoted to fine watches exclusively.

Your representative jeweler will doubtless have a few of these watches on exhibition during the next thirty days.

If you are interested in a reliable watch of the new thin-model type and possessing elements of the distinguished and the unusual, we advise you to make inquiry at an early date. It is an opportunity to own a 17-jewel HOWARD cased in solid gold at the very moderate price of $55.

A Howard Watch is always worth what you pay for it.

The price of each Watch is fixed at the factory and a printed ticket attached—from the 17-jewel (double roller) in a Crescent or Extra or Boss Extra gold-filled case at $40, to the 23-jewel at $150—and the EDWARD HOWARD model at $350.

Not every jeweler can sell you a HOWARD WATCH. The jeweler who can is a good man to know.

This year the milliners are bringing out one with the lace frills and the pink ribbons and roses that closely resemble it.

These hats are built up in the back and are almost flat on the top. They are made of tagal braid and are usually of delicate colors.

The one shown is of pale blue tagal braid with white lace and pink anw blue morning glories and blue ribbon. It would be beautiful with a white lingerie gown.

SUPERFLUOUS HAIR KILLED WITHOUT ELECTRICITY

By a Specialist

"I have the greatest trouble with correspondents who insist on using common, worthless depilatories or want the torturing barbarous electrical needle applied for killing their superfluous hair," says Mme. Chaminade in Milady's Boudoir. "More mental and physical suffering is caused by these abominable methods than you can imagine. I have carefully investigated and tried a new and simple method that never fails to remove all signs of hair completely and painlessly and without injury to the skin or complexion. In a surprisingly large number of cases it has destroyed all trace of hair so that it has never returned. In fact I must caution my readers that it must not be applied to hair that they do not wish totally destroyed. It is called "Mrs. Osgood's Wonder," being named for a well known woman who arranged for it to be put on the market after it had succeeded in entirely eradicating all traces of her own very distressing growth of hair on chin, lip and arms, which everything else had failed to touch.

Mrs. Osgood's Wonder is quite inexpensive; you can obtain it from Meyer Bros. Drug Stores or any up-to-date druggist or department store, on the guarantee of your money back if it fails. Ask for it by name. "Mrs. Osgood's Wonder;" a signed guarantee comes with every package.

"HIND SIGHT"

GERMAN AMERICAN NATIONAL BANK

"I wish I had started a bank account years ago," said a small merchant.

"Ten years ago I paid a bill in cash. Two years later I had to pay the same bill again for I could not find the receipt. Had I had a bank account at the time I would have paid the bill with a check and then I would have had the check to show the bill had been paid."

Of course a man's hind sight is better than his foresight, but why not convert the hind sight of others into foresight for yourself?

FIND BATTLE MAP OF NEW ORLEANS

Has Signatures of Those Who Fought Behind Cotton Bales.

FORMING A FORTRESS

New Orleans, Mar. 20.—Interest in the slumbering cotton-bale theory of the battle of New Orleans has been aroused by the finding of water color picture map of the original battle plan in an abandoned trunk in the cellar of the St. Charles hotel. Little is known about the drawing or the other contents of the trunk, which has remained unnoticed for years in a dark corner.

Five veterans of the battle had added their signatures to the remarkable map to attest the fact that it is a true representation of the battle plan as made under the direction of Andrew Jackson by his military engineer, H. Laclotte. It shows a line of cotton bales, which a marginal note says was 1,000 feet long with a prolongment extending 600 feet into the woods. Some historians deny the story about the use of cotton bales.

The five veterans who say they fought behind cotton bales were Joseph St. Cyr, Jean Lamonthe, P. M. Lapice, Charles Raymond and Jean Gervais. Pen pictures of these men appear in the footnotes.

The finding of the picture is timely, as it will be of service for the staging of the battle, which is to be one of the leading features of the Exposition of Big Ideas.

A full view of the Chalmette field is given, and the veteran draughtsmen have set forth the placing of the different commands, the plan of attack and defense and the map and the trunk.

It is thought the map and the trunk in which it was found were the property of a former patron of the hotel who took "French leave."

H. A. WETZEL.
FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER.

As the campaign progresses we wish to call to the attention of the democratic voters the name of H. A. Wetzel, of St. Joe township, as a man well able to discharge the duties of the office he seeks. Mr. Wetzel has been a resident of St. Joe township for a period of forty-two years, has always been a staunch democratic worker and has friends in all parts of his own township and the county. He is in this race on a good, clean man to man contest and uses no underhand tactics to get the support of the voters, to gain what votes he will get. If nominated he will make a good commissioner and one the democratic voters can feel safe in placing on the ticket. As to his knowledge in the affairs of the work to be done, he is well versed and has made a careful study as to the needs of the people and will, if nominated and elected, do all within his power to use his best judgment in all county affairs, with always in mind to save the people money and time. At the primary, April 3rd, he asks the voters to consider his name and use their best judgment in voting for the commissioner of the Second district.

CARRY CRIPPLED TEAM.

Local High School Team Goes to Auburn Under a Severe Handicap.

With Gerberding out on account of injuries and Geller and Diffenderfer on the sick list, the boys of the Fort Wayne high school basket ball team will go to Auburn for the double bill there tonight under a severe handicap.

The girls' team is intact and will go into the game with the same spirit that won for it in the game in Fort Wayne a short time ago. This is the big athletic event of the high school year and two cars will be necessary to carry the young people who expect to attend the games.

CHURUBUSCO GETTING WISE.

(Columbia City Post.)

The wrestling match at Churubusco in the Olympic theater dated for Wednesday night, in which Billy Schober, of Indianapolis, was to throw Ed Adamson, of Chicago, and Chess Bechtol, of Van Wert, O., twice each in an hour and a half, did not come off. All of the principals for the bout were present, but there was such a feeling prevalent among the sports in Churubusco, relative to the late Ross vs. Buttermore match in this city, that the affair was practically boycotted.

POSTPONED GAME FOR A PRACTICE

Friars Took Over Library Hall to Prepare for Zanesville.

EXPECT A VICTORY

There was to have been a regular basket ball game between Decatur and the Central Catholic high school at Library hall last night, but the Friar management regarded practice for the Zanesville game tonight more important than a clash between these clubs and the scrimmage was postponed indefinitely.

No defeat in the history of the Friar management has been as humiliating as the one administered by Zanesville early in the season so Art Fletcher came over yesterday afternoon from Ada, O., to tune up his troupe for the battle and he will put on a formidable aggregation tonight.

Confidence in the Friar team is abundant. Plans have been laid to keep two of the Zanesville players away from the baskets and if this is accomplished without crippling the Friar chances for going out after counters it is believed that victory will be easy, as the local club members think that there are only two good shots on the opposing squad.

Zanesville is just as well prepared as the Friars. The players are intelligent fellows who watch the play of the men they are to meet and figure out attacks and defenses to meet the peculiar styles of the enemy and the followers of the club think its members are just as versatile as the Friars or any other club.

With an out-of-town referee in the person of Barnhart, of South Bend, who is an experienced player and who has performed here in good style before, everything is laid for a strong battle with no advantage to either side and the sale of seats indicates that another capacity house will witness the go.

There will be a good preliminary as two of the strongest second string clubs of the city will meet when the Rexalls and the Iroquois meet. These clubs have met before and the rivalry between them is as strong as between the principals in the big game.

MORDECAI BROWN DID NOT TAKE A SURPLUS PLAYER WITH HIM TO TRAINING QUARTERS.

(By Hugh S. Fullerton.)

Morrow, La., March 20. Mordecai Brown has gained a big advantage over several of the Federal league managers already. The first glimpse of the St. Louis Federals in their training camp shows that Brown is making a wise start.

At Shreveport, where Tinker's club is working, the field was cluttered up with semi-pros, minor leaguers and real ball players. It is going to be difficult to let them go and worse to keep them.

The Feds owe something to every player they try and must keep faith with them. Brown saw this difficulty afar off. He has chosen only such men as he is certain he can use.

Tinker's team has more strength on paper just now. Brown is in better technical position. He needs a second baseman, a third baseman, an outfielder and a pitcher. He is after them.

Brown was Chance's best assistant while the Cubs were winning pennants. He is much after Chance's style, save that he is less likely to fly off the handle.

Brown has a corking good training quarters, one of the best in the south. Tinker has the hotel. Brown has the grounds, the bath facilities and appliances, a place to work indoors and all the adjuncts of a real major league training camp.

His team in the field compares favorably with the major league teams. Three experienced catchers make a fine foundation for a club. Brown has Mike Simon, Pittsburg's second string catcher, Hartley from the Giants, a promising man of experience and ability, and Chapman, who was with the Cubs once.

The pitching staff will give someone a lot of argument. Brown will lead it. He is in great shape this spring. He has a pitcher coming from the American league who will be the star of the aggregation. Bob Groom is there, a wise and clever fellow. He is eager to work his head off for Brown's success. Otie Crandall, McGraw's great rescuer, is with him. Kuepper, a left hander, who was with the St. Louis Federals last year, was so promising the major leagues were after him. Herbert, with Cincinnati last season, is promising. Jenney and Babcock, the last named a left hander; A. Williams and Buschman, a tryout, fill the list, with Edgar Willett, from the Tigers, to top it off.

Hugh Miller, from Montreal, will be first baseman, a corking man who can hit in slashing, solid fashion. Boucher, from Jersey City, will play second, at least until the National league star reports. Al Bridwell will be at short, and Mathes, from Utica, at third, although Mathes and Boucher may change positions. Ward Miller, Kommers, who was one of the promised sensations of the National league with Pittsburg, and Del Drake form the present outfield, with Tobin as utility.

OPEN BASE BALL WAR IN EARNEST

Suit is Filed to Test the Reserve and to Get Red Killifer.

A VALUABLE CATCHER

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 20.—The first legal shot of the baseball war of 1914 was fired here today by the Federal league in filing a petition with the United States district court for the western district of Michigan, asking for an injunction to restrain William J. Killifer, Jr., formerly catcher of the Philadelphia Nationals, from playing baseball with any other team than the Chicago Federals.

Killifer signed a three-year contract with the Chicago Federals, but afterward was persuaded that the reserve clause in his contract with the Philadelphia club held him legally to Philadelphia and he joined his former team. The suit involves the legality of the reserve clause, long regarded as one of the bulwarks of organized baseball. The suit was brought in the western Michigan district because Killifer is a resident of Paw Paw, Michigan.

The complaint which was signed by Charles Weeghman, president of the Chicago Federal league baseball club, told of the signing of the contract by Killifer, who agreed to play for three years for the Chicago Federals for a total of $17,500, or $5,833.33 a year. The contract, a copy of which was attached to the petition for an enjoining order, expressly stipulated, the court was informed, that Killifer agreed to devote his entire time and attention to the service of the Chicago Federals.

The court was informed that $500 was advanced Killifer on account, and was accepted by him, and is still retained. Failure to report for practice, in accordance with his contract, was alleged against Killifer.

The bill set forth "that one of the principal positions on a baseball team is that of catcher; that on account of its importance and of the extraordinary skill, adaptability and training necessary for the expert playing of this position, it is more difficult to secure an expert catcher than any of the other players."

A paragraph informed the court "that the defendant is a baseball player, to-wit: A catcher, of unique and extraordinary skill and expertness and of such personal and intellectual character that his loss cannot be substantially compensated for by the services of some other baseball catcher."

The bill set forth that the Chicago Federals would suffer irreparable injury unless a restraining order was issued, enjoining Killifer from playing with clubs other than the Chicago Federals, and more particularly with the Philadelphia Nationals, with whom the complainant believed Killifer was now in active practice in preparation for the opening of the baseball season.

The complaint closed with a prayer for the immediate issuance of a temporary injunction preventing Killifer from violating his contract with the Chicago Federals and a petition that the temporary injunction be made permanent in the final hearing of the suit.

ONCE MORE FOR LUCK.

As has always been the custom, The Sentinel columns are open to all amateur and profesional sports but local basket ball, football, baseball and other games are especially desired. The telephone number is 650, and items that cannot be written and sent in will be accepted by telephone. To secure correct spelling of names and rollable figures it is best to send in written reports.

It is necessary to have these items in the office by 10 o'clock on the day of publication. Attention has been called frequently to this necessary rule and once more it is urged upon the amateurs especially that they get in lots of news and get it in the office inside of the time limit.

DURAY HOPES TO BE A CONTENDER

DRIVES A FAST CAR

Indianapolis, Indn., March 20.—Arthur Duray, the sensational Frenchman who eclipsed Bob Burman's high water mark of 141.73 miles an hour by attaining a speed of 142.9 at Ostend last fall, has entered the next Indianapolis five-hundred-mile race. His machine is the identical one that captured the Lesser Grand Prix at Boulogne last year, Boillot driving. Though but of 183 cubic inches piston displacement, it is easily capable of 96 miles an hour, because of which, together with its extreme light weight, it is expected to prove a most formidable contender.

Duray's car makes the third of its make to enter the contest, the others being handled by Boillot, the European champion, and Goux, who won the five-hundred-mile race last year. This outfit is expected to rule a favorite for the race, no equally startling combination having put in its appearance to date.

Duray also plans to bring over another car in which he established his world's straightaway record last fall, to send it against Burman's time both on the Speedway and Ormond beach, provided he can make satisfactory arrangements with the factory. It is Duray's theory that he can reach 150 miles an hour with this creation if he ever finds a place to let it out. Ormond beach ought exactly to suit his requirements in this respect, it is thought. On the Speedway, of course, he would hardly be able to do over 125, as anything in excess of that figure might send him over a turn into the next county.

An odd circumstance comes to light in the fact that, despite his French training and environment, Duray is a regular American, having been born in New York city some forty years ago. He returned to Paris when but a boy, and has resided there ever since. His trip to this country next May will be the first he has ever made. English, by the way, is not in his vocabulary. He will thus present the queer spectacle of a native American who needs an interpreter to understand his countrymen.

Jules Goux, winner of the five-hundred-mile race on the motor Speedway last year, has written Carl Fisher, president of the course, that he expects to bring home the bacon again this year. "Bien que nous des voitures l'une cylindre plus faible, nous avons malgre cela l'espoir de gagner," he says. Figure it out for yourself.

REFUSED FORTUNE FOR CUBS.

Chicago, March 20.—Charles P. Taft, of Cincinnati, who announced Wednesday night he would retain his controlling interest in the Chicago National league baseball club for at least a year, refused an offer of $770,000 for his holdings, according to John T. Connery, who attempted to purchase the Cubs for the Connery-Spiegel syndicate of this city. Mr. Connery did not state the price asked by Mr. Taft for his stock.

"It was at Mr. Taft's solicitation we met him," said Connery. "Our final bid in Cincinnati was $770,000, and we had with us there a certified check for $25,000 to bind the deal. When we met in Chicago two days ago, Mr. Taft said he already had spent quite a little money in buying uniforms and sending the club south to training quarters. These expenditures amounted to more than $15,000 and for good measure we increased our offer $20,000, so that our final offer was $770,000.

"Although Mr. Taft reduced his figures a trifle, we were still far apart and there the matter ended."

DANGEROUS CONTENDER IN THE SPEEDWAY RACES AT INDIANAPOLIS, MAY 30.

JOSEPH CHRISTIAENS.

A couple of European dark horses loom up in the next 500 mile race on the Indianapolis motor speedway in Joseph Christiaens, the Belgian, and Albert Guyot, shown in the insert. The latter's car beat the European road racing record last summer, incidentally shoving it up to 76.8 miles an hour, where it promises to stand for some time to come. Both machines are said to be faster than anything that has raced on the speedway to date, holding from 100 to 110 miles an hour under their bonnets. The battle between them and the rest of the field, especially the Americans entered, promises to be the merriest seen in many a day.

THIN FOLKS MADE FAT

The Way Samose Works Its Wonders—Guaranteed by Meyer Bros. Co.

More than half of the readers of The Sentinel would give almost anything to be plump and rosy instead of thin and scrawny.

Physicians and chemists for years have studied the problem of making a flesh-forming food, but it is only within the last few months that a bright man discovered the prescription that taken with the daily meals gives a positive increase in flesh. In fact it was so certain in its action that a guarantee was attached to each package stating that if weight did not increase as a result of using it, the purchase price would be refunded.

This preparation is now put up in convenient form for use under the name of Samose.

Meyer Bros. Co. have secured the agency in Fort Wayne for Samose, and as the percentage of satisfactory results from the use of this prescription is so nearly one hundred per cent., they feel there is no risk in offering to refund the money if Samose does not do all that is claimed for it.

Everybody that is thin and out of health should begin today the use of Samose with a guarantee like this.—Adv.

Take Soda If Food Sours in Acid Stomach

A well known authority states that stomach trouble and indigestion is nearly always due to acidity—acid stomach—and not, as most folks believe, from a lack of digestive juices. He states that an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach retards digestion and starts food fermentation, then our meals sour like garbage in a can, forming acrid fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. We then get that heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest, we eructate sour food, belch gas or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to get a package of 10 grains Sodagen tablets from any pharmacy and swallow one tablet anytime followed by a tumbler of water which instantly neutralizes these acids; stops food fermentation, absorbs the gases and sweetens the entire digestive system.

This suggestion should prove valuable to stomach sufferers here who can trace their indigestion to acidity. A local druggist is the authority that these tablets are entirely harmless, being composed of Soda, Magnesia and Calcium Carbonate U. S. P.—Adv.

EVERYTHING, EVEN BABIES, COMES IN TWOS TO THESE TWO COUPLES.

THE BETTER HALVES OF THE REMARKABLE "PARALLEL COUPLES."

Lancaster, Pa., March 20.—What may be safely called an unparalleled human parallelism is revealed here in the remarkable chain of coincidental circumstances making up the life histories of the Rev. Nathan B. Yerger and the Rev. Elbert E. Landis and their wives all of this city.

To them everything has come in pairs, even babies! The stork that serves this community left a boy and a girl at each home during the past week and this brought to light the extraordinary double experiences of the delighted parents.

Nathan B. Yerger and Elbert E. Landis were chums when they were boys. Mrs. Yerger and Mrs. Landis were girl chums. The boys entered Muhlenberg college of the Lutheran church at the same time and were roommates for four years. Mrs. Yerger and Mrs. Landis entered preparatory school on the same day and were inseparable friends. Subsequently the girls entered the same class in the Kutztown normal school and both passed out of the same institution in the same class. Both took up the profession of teaching, taking the work on the same day.

The boys graduated on the same day. Each entered the Lutheran ministry, preaching their first sermons on the same Sunday.

The young ministers met the young teachers at the same time, became engaged the same day and were married by the same clergymen at a double ceremony. The four went away on a wedding tour together.

Rev. Yerger became pastor of the Lutheran charges at Rohrerstown and Chester Hill and Rev. Landis is minister to the Lutheran church of the Redeemer and also the Church of the Ascension in Lancaster. Both ministers drew the same salary and their wives were much together.

Last Sunday the stork fluttered over the home of Rev. Yerger. The minister met a nurse at the door of Mrs. Yerger's bedchamber and the nurse said: "A fine boy Dr. Yerger." The minister was rubbing his hands gleefully when the nurse reappeared and exclaimed: And now a little girl has come. Beautiful twins, Dr. Yerger."

That day Rev. Yerger sent the word of double joy over to his friends, Rev. and Mrs. Landis. They sent congratulations, and, until last Thursday it appeared that the parallel events in the lives of the two couples had been broken. But the stork, a consistent bird, evened matters up nicely. Early in the morning of that day Rev. Landis was poised on the threshold of Mrs. Landis' bedroom when a nurse appeared. "A fine boy has come to you, Dr. Landis," she exclaimed and quickly retreated back into the room. Dr. Landis was walking up and down the floor rubbing his hands in glee, when the nurse again appeared at the door and whispered quickly, "Dr. Landis, a sweet little girl has come, too. You have splendid twins."

Of course the babies will be named in honor of the mothers and the boys in honor of the proud fathers.

TYPIST WEDDED TO MILLIONAIRE

Man Has Interest in Mine Revealed by Kick of Mule.

OWNS A HALF OF IT

Chicago, March 20.—There was a wedding at the Great Northern hotel recently and it provided another beneficiary of the $14,000,000 kick of a Pacific coast mule.

Jacob Goetz, 60 years old, multi-millionaire hotel owner and mine operator of Spokane, Wash., married Miss Isabelle N. Sweeney, formerly a hotel stenographer at Portland, Ore. She is 35—and heiress apparent to the great fortune that the mule kicked out of a mountainside in the Coeur d'Alenes in the early 80's.

Goetz and his bride will be here for several days before returning to their own hotel in Spokane.

Goetz, a thrifty German, to whom the prospecting game had always seemed a bit too uncertain for his personal taste, decided to do a little gold hunting by proxy. He and his partner grubstaked two men. One item in the outfit with which he provided his men was a mule.

It was a bad-tempered animal. The men thought more than once of carrying their own packs rather than negotiate with the beast. They took him along, however, and prospected in vain until their food ran short. Then they started back. The mule decided to stay where he was.

When his master beat him he kicked lustily, missed the men, but hit a mountain that happened to be within range. The men looked where the mule had kicked and saw some gold.

They gave the mine a name, and thus far it has paid $14,000,000 in dividends. Goetz has taken his one-fourth share and built another large fortune on top of it.

More than 400 members attended the social session at Elks' temple last evening following the initiation of a class of twenty-five candidates.

YOUR FRECKLES

Need Attention in February and March or Face Will Stay Covered.

Now is the time to take special care of the complexion if you wish it to look well the rest of the year. The February and March winds have a strong tendency to bring out freckles that may stay all Summer unless removed. Now is the time to use othine—double strength.

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful that it is sold by Meyer Bros. Co. under guarantee to refund the money if it fails. Get an ounce of othine—double strength, and even a few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the smaller freckles even vanishing entirely.—Adv.

HOME MAKERS TO END DIVORCE EVIL

Domestic Science Graduates Turn Out Excellent Housewives.

JUDGED BY REPORT

Topeka, Kan., March 20.—In the extension of one of its departments the Kansas Agricultural college announces that it has found a potent weapon against divorce. Recently tabulated statistics show that the Kansas girl who studies domestic science in any of the Kansas schools offering the course of complete home-making stands a chance of running into family troubles with her husband only once in 106 times, while the girl who does not take this work may run into domestic trouble one time in seven. These are the actual figures and are taken to indicate that all schools should require complete domestic science studies right along with reading, writing and arithmetic. It may be that in a few years, instead of a medical examination being required of all brides and bridegrooms, as is now being advocated, the medical requirement will be for the prospective bridegroom alone, while the girl will be required to show that she is a trained home-maker.

There have been 829 girls graduated from the Kansas Agricultural college in the last twenty years, all of them having studied the college domestic science courses. Of this number 427 are or have been married and 402 are still unclaimed. Most of the unclaimed ones are teachers or workers in other professional lines.

Of the 427 girls married only four have been divorced and two of these have been remarried to their one-time husbands. As a matter of fact, the chances of a domestic science girl becoming divorced is really one in two hundred, because of the remarriage of the two couples. In several of the cases there are extenuating circumstances, which make the records of the domestic science department of the agricultural college even better.

By making the domestic science course an integral part of the public school system it is believed that Kansas can solve the divorce problem, which now is on a basis of one divorce to six reasonably happy marriages.

CUPID WINS AFTER FIFTY YEARS.

Hartford Conn., Mch. 17.—A romance that began more than half a century ago reached a happy chapter the other day in the parlors of the Garde hotel here, when Wilfred H. Nettleton, 88 years old, director of the Bristol National bank and one of the state's wealthiest men, and Mrs. Mary K. Baldwin, 68 years old, were married.

"Why didn't you marry her fifty years ago?" he was asked.

"Lord knows, I tried to. But she was a fussy young miss of 18 then and I was nearly 40. So she picked a younger, but I'll be durned if he was a handsomer man."

Mrs. Baldwin's husband died seven months ago.

MRS. JOSEPH KRESS DIES.

Was Well Known Here and Had Many Relatives in the City.

According to a telegram received here by Mrs. Newton Kimmel, her sister, Mrs. Joseph Kress, died last Monday at North Bend, Wash., at the age of sixty-three years. She had been a life-long resident of Allen county until seven years ago when she went to Washington to reside.

Mrs. Kress was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Neil McNear, pioneer residents of the county who resided in Wayne township southwest of the city. Surviving besides the husband she leaves a son, Edwin, and two grandchildren. She also leaves another sister, Mrs. Dallas Brunstrattor, of Fort Wayne. Mr. and Mrs. Kimmel visited the Kress family last fall at North Bend.

IN THE CHURCHES

W. C. T. U. MEETING IS WELL ATTENDED

Hundreds of Young People Hear Interesting Talks on Temperance.

OTHER CHURCH NEWS

The temperance mass meeting held last evening at the assembly room of the court house under the auspices of the Woman's Christian Temperance union was attended by over two-hundred young people of the city, some of which took part in the program that was rendered. The program as announced by the union was carried out.

One of the most interesting talks of the evening was the one given by Rev. Charles Manchester, pastor of the Church of God. In his address on the subject, "How the Young People Can Help," he appealed to those young men and young women to do everything that could be done to help the Woman's Temperance union and Christian Endeavor union accomplish their slogan, which is "A Saloonless Nation by 1920."

Arthur Parry made clear and fully explained the joint resolution introduced into the house of representatives by Congressman Hobson. This address was followed by one equally as interesting and educational by Attorney Ballou on "The New Constitution of the State of Indiana."

The young people of the First M. E. and Bethany Presbyterian churches formed a large choir, who led in all the singing and rendered several extra selections. The male quartet of St. Paul's M. E. church also helped in the singing.

Everyone in the audience was enthused last evening and many of the young people stood up and gave five minute talks on the work which was outlined, so that this nation would be saloonless by the year 1920. The meeting lasted over two hours and a half and was declared by the officers in charge one of the best meetings ever held by the union in this city.

TO HOLD SECOND REVIVAL.

Rev. John Walton Will Conduct Special Meetings at Spy Run Avenue Branch.

For the second time this year Rev. John Walton, assistant pastor of the First Baptist church, will conduct revival meetings in this city. This time he will hold the meetings in the Spy Run branch, beginning Sunday evening. The other meeting was conducted the early part of the winter at the Oliver street branch with great success.

Besides a chorus, Rev. Walton and his wife will sing each evening and he will also use his moving pictures in his services. These meetings will be held at 1414 Spy Run avenue every evening of the week except Saturday. Rev. Walton expects to have many accessions to the church at these meetings. Every year since the start of his ministry he has had an average of over one hundred a year.

SPECIAL SERVICES NEXT WEEK.

Dr. J. H. Bomberger Will Speak at Evangelistic Meetings at Grace Reformed Church.

Beginning Sunday a series of evangelistic services will be held at the Grace Reformed church every evening next week with the exception of Monday and Saturday evenings. The pastor, Dr. A. K. Zartman, has secured the services of Dr. J. H. Bomberger to assist in these meetings and he will deliver the address each evening.

Dr. Bomberger is an able and interesting speaker and it will be worth while for anyone to attend these meetings. The speaker's home is in Cleveland and he is the editor of the Christian World and is known all over the country for his fine speaking.

FANNY CROSBY DAY.

Will Be Observed Sunday Evening at the Southside Baptist Church.

The Sunday evening service at the Southside Baptist church will be held in commemoration of the remarkable hymn writer, Fanny Crosby, and will be conducted by the choir of the church. This day will be known as Fanny Crosby day.

Fanny Crosby is a woman who has been totally blind for almost ninety-four years and has written some of the most beautiful gospel hymns in use today.

Special stereopticon views and pictures illustrating her life and songs will be shown Sunday evening in connection with this service.

Gave Illustrated Talk.

Rev. C. Claude Travis, pastor of the Wayne street M. E. church, delivered an exceedingly interesting lecture last evening to a large audience on the subject, "Rome." On his travels through the countries of the old world, Rev. Travis took many pictures, but most of these were taken in Rome and these were shown on the screen in connection with his lecture.

General Aid Elects.

The election of officers of the general Ladies' Aid society of the Bethany Presbyterian church, held yesterday afternoon, resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Charles Olson; vice president, Mrs. Thomas Gillium; secretary, Mrs. Joseph Stephens, and treasurer, Mrs. J. O. Brown.

Notes of the Churches.

The Ladies' Aid of the Plymouth Congregational church will serve a cafeteria supper at the church dining rooms Tuesday evening, March 24, from 5 to 7 o'clock.

The West Side division of the Ladies' Aid society of the First M. E. church will give a chicken supper Saturday evening at the church.

SUFFRAGE CAUSE FAILS.

Senate Votes Down the Ashurst Resolution, 35 to 34.

Washington, March 20.—The senate late yesterday voted down the Ashurst resolution to provide for a constitutional amendment extending suffrage to women. The result was 35 to 34. It would have required a two-thirds vote to pass the resolution.

Senators voting for the suffrage amendment were: Ashurst, Brady, Bristow, Burton, Chamberlain, Clapp, Clay, Wyoming; Gallinger, Gronna, Hollis, Hughes, Jones, Kenyon, Lafollette, Lane, Lea, Myers, Nelson, Newlands, Norris, Owen, Perkins, Poindexter, Ransdell, Shafroth, Sheppard, Sherman, Smoot, Stephenson, Sterling, Sutherland, Thomas, Thompson, Townsend, Works—35.

Senators voting against the amendment were: Bankhead, Borah, Bradley, Brandegee, Bryan, Catron, Dillingham, Dupont, Gore, James, Johnson, Lee, Maryland; Lodge, McCumber, McLean, Martin, Martine, Oliver, Overman, Page, Pittman, Pomerene, Reed, Shields, Smith, Georgia; Smith, Maryland; Smith, South Carolina; Swanson, Thornton, Tillman, Vardaman, Weeks, West, Williams—34.

CASTS HIS SECOND VOTE.

Vice President Marshall Breaks Tie in the Senate.

Washington, March 20.—Vice President Marshall cast his second vote in the senate yesterday when a tie vote developed on a motion to take up a bill providing for the sale of certain Montana coal lands to the Republican Coal company, a subsidiary of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad. The vice president's vote brought the bill up out of order. Senator Walsh offered a number of amendments which will be considered later. The bill seeks to give the railroad company a coal supply for its own use.

WOLF & DESSAUER

Wonderful New Spring Suits

The woman who likes a suit which is, above all, individual---a suit which is "different" and distinguished---will find hundreds of such suits here, priced from $35 to $75.

The woman who wants something simpler will find hundreds of suits to please her at $19.75 to $30.00.

That is the wonderful scope of our suit showing for Spring—it leaves nothing to be desired in the way of price, in the matter of style and in the variety of fabrics and colors.

The Newest Materials include faille, moire, gabardine, fancy crepes, taffeta and novelty woolens of light weave. The colors are charming—the new greens—ocean green, huntress, Russian, olive, leaf green and staple shades. And the new blues are wonderously beautiful—wild duck blue, electric blue, midnight blue, and navy, of course. In addition are all the new shades brought out this season in such profusion.

Most of the Models are more or less elaborate, even the most expensive ones, but there is a liberal sprinkling of plain tailor-mades as well for conservative women who will not adopt the radical change in dress the season demands.

Nearly Every Woman Will Want a Coat This Spring

—because of the great prevalence of the beautiful one-piece frock, which necessitates a separate wrap.

Dressy models are made of wool and crepe poplins, crepe Bedfords, gabardines, silk taffetas and moires.

Balmacaan Coats are very smart and made of shaggy fabrics. They are made with the English bell shape flare at the bottom, great roomy sleeves and huge pockets—an excellent model for Spring and early Summer wear.

Our Line of Separate Coats is Splendidly Complete and Prices Range from $12.50 to $45.00.

The Prettiest Blouses Imaginable Are Here for Spring

Foremost of all requirements must be a softness and lightness of texture that verges on the diaphanous. Second, a brilliance in color which, in any but a colorful season, would seem crude. Third, trimmings in harmony with sheerness of fabric---laces incredibly soft, fine batiste embroidering and lovely ribbons.

Among the latest arrivals are blouses in the batwing style. One of silk lace in charlruse, the new mustard green shade, made over charmeuse of the same color, is very striking with its touch of royal purple introduced in the trimming detail.

Other lovely blouses of orchard chiffon and crepe de chine in beautiful shadings, and priced from $3.95 to $25.

Captivating Wash Dresses for Young Girls

Heretofore it has been difficult for young girls—"Juniors" of 13, 15 and 17 years to be fitted in the ordinary sizes. But manufacturers of the best grades of young folks' wear are making dresses to fit these odd sizes, and this collection of tub frocks is the best as to fit and style ever brought out.

They are made of splendid qualities of ginghams and chambrays in fast colors. The styles are captivating and most becoming to girlish figures. Some are made with a pleated overskirt, and there are also pretty two-piece skirts. The blouses are simply fashioned, but with graceful, comfortable lines.

These charming frocks are in 13, 15 and 17-year sizes. At the prices $2.50 and $3.95—they could not be made at home so prettily or satisfactorily.

Children's Raincoats for Spring.

Practical little raincoats and capes, the latter with or without hood, made of guaranteed fast colors in tan, red and blue. Every little girlie will need one for the April showers to come. Sizes 6 to 16 years. Special values at..... $2.95 and $3.95

The examiners will probably be detained at the institution for three weeks.

SHOP AND RAILROAD NEWS

W. N. HOSTERMAN IS ADVANCED

Well Known Electrician to Be Electrical Engineer at New Depot.

B. L. E. AUXILIARY PLANS CELEBRATION

Is Twenty-six Years Old on Saturday and Will Observe Anniversary.

William N. Hosterman has been appointed mechanical engineer of the Pennsylvania passenger station, the appointment becoming effective last Monday. He will have charge of the heating, lighting and power machinery of the entire station. This includes the motors for driving the elevators, the ice-making and refrigerating machines, the motors which drive the vacuum cleaners and the motor which operates the enunciator system.

For the past year Mr. Hosterman has been the gang foreman in charge of linemen at the general power plant east of Lafayette street. He has had twelve years' experience in the electrical department at the Pennsylvania shops and with the Traction company and no man is better fitted for the work that has been assigned him than he. He commenced work with the Pennsylvania in the police department and for awhile was a crossing watchman. June 25, 1902, he was transferred to the power plant as an electrical lineman. July 9, 1905, he resigned and took employment as a lineman with the traction company, returning to the Pennsylvania power company in the capacity of a motor inspector August 12, 1907. A year ago last January he was promoted to gang foreman in charge of linemen, where he remained until he received his present position.

ROLLER SKATING PARTY.

Electro-Technics Preparing for Annual Event Tonight.

Every year since its organization the Electro-Technic club has given a social event of some kind for the benefit of the members alone. This year the social event will be a roller skating party at the rink tonight and all day men have been at work decorating the hall and making other preparations for the event. The crowd will be the largest ever attending similar events given by the club, because its membership is the largest in its history. In a membership contest a few weeks ago over 400 new names were enrolled. An orchestra will furnish music for the skaters tonight and a list of prizes for different events has been formulated. Luncheon will be served, also, during the evening.

TO HAVE BASKET SUPPER.

Ladies of the Grand International Auxiliary Plan Good Time.

Twenty-six years ago Friendship division, No. 18, Grand International auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, was organized and that event and date is to be commemorated by the ladies in appropriate manner tomorrow. The celebration will take place at the B. L. E. hall, on Calhoun street, and will consist of an afternoon meeting of the auxiliary, followed by a basket supper and a program of music, speaking and other features. Only the members of the auxiliary, their husbands and members of their families will be present, but the officers want all who can to come and have a good time.

REJOICING OVER NOMINATION.

There was universal rejoicing in the Pennsylvania shops and offices this morning because of the nomination of George A. Bittler for treasurer on the democratic state ticket. After completing his school term George entered the employ of the Pennsylvania as a clerk and after a short term out in the shops, was called to the main office by Shop Clerk J. H. Holbrook, remaining there about two years. Thence he went to the motive power office and later to the Nutman bank. He has maintained an interest in his former office associates and calls to see them whenever in the city. James H. Fry is another state official in which the "boys" at the Pennsylvania shops and offices proudly refer to as a "former associate and chum." They still hold him in the latter light, but do not get to see him as often as formerly.

MR. WHITER IN CHICAGO.

E. T. Whiter, general superintendent of the Pennsylvania Northwest system, who had been here to inspect the company's property, including the new depot and the shops, went to Chicago yesterday afternoon and is looking after business and attending the conventions of the America Railway Bridge and Building association and the Pennsylvania Maintenance of Way association. He will return to his home in Pittsburg tonight, passing through this city on train No. 8.

SHOPS WILL CLOSE SATURDAY.

The Pennsylvania shops will be closed tomorrow to allow some needed repairs to machinery. They will be re-opened Monday and operated upon a ten hour work day schedule, as has been the rule for some time. The Wabash shops will also be closed all day Saturday, the working hours at that plant having been fixed at forty a week several weeks ago.

INSPECTED 400 WHEELS.

John Otis, of Huntington, and S. W. Hall, of Chicago, each inspected 200 car wheels at the Bass Foundry and Machine works yesterday. Mr. Otis represented the Erie road and Mr. Hall represented the New York Central.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

C. H. Keintz, Pennsylvania passenger fireman, is sick and off duty.

John Rupp, of the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop, is sick and off duty.

J. H. Knight, a Pennsylvania yard fireman, is off duty with an injured foot.

Night Fireman E. Hoepmeyer, of the Pennsylvania power plant, is off duty on account of sickness.

Chief Clerk Robert Nehr, of the Wabash shops, left today for Indianapolis, to spend a few days with friends.

A box of cigars was "on tap" all of today on the desk of Jacob Reiber, in the Pennsylvania motive power office. This liberality is the result of the work of the stork. A baby daughter was brought to the Reiber home yesterday, the third girl in the family.

Machinist Jacob Strohm, of the Pennsylvania shops, fell in going from the back shops to the round house this morning. His face struck a railroad rail and the nose was broken and the flesh bruised. He had the wounds dressed and then returned to work.

Bellevue Gazette: "Time was worth money to Mrs. Sunday, wife of Evangelist Sunday, who was a passenger on a Nickel Plate passenger train Tuesday morning. Reaching this city the train was behind schedule, and Mrs. Sunday left the Pullman in which she had been riding and hurried forward to the engine and offered a cash reward to the engineman if he would reach Fort Wayne in time for her to make desired connections. The money offer was refused, but is is understood that Mrs. Sunday didn't miss her connection. She was en route to her home to see a young son who was quite ill.

J. B. FRANKE SPEAKS.

Addresses Quest Club Dinner on Subject of "Collections."

Members of the Fort Wayne Quest club who attended the regular weekly meeting and dinner of the organization this noon at the Commercial club, were addressed by J. B. Franke, president of the Perfection Biscuit company, whose subject was "Collections."

Owing to the absence of C. B. Fitch, who was to have addressed a Quest club meeting at the Young Women's Christian association this evening, the meeting was called off. Next Friday evening B. Paul Mossman will speak.

SERVICES AT SYNAGOGUE.

The services at the Hebrew temple will be conducted at 7:45 o'clock tonight by Rabbi Meyer Lovitch, who will speak on "The Influence of the Bible on Art and Literature." This will be the third lecture in a series on Bible influence.

Seven thousand six hundred and eighty-one persons were imprisoned for debt in England and Wales in the year 1911.

NO TROUBLE AT ALL TO STEAL

Miss Redebaugh, High School Teacher, Confesses as Shoplifter.

RAIDED MANY STORES

"It is easy—just no trouble at all to steal things and get away with them. I don't know why I did it. I made money enough to buy everything I needed, I had no one to look out for but myself and I had saved money from my salary. I couldn't help it, I guess."

This was told to Police Matron Fannie Winch by Miss Foss Redebaugh, until today a domestic science teacher in the Fort Wayne public schools, who has been uncovered by Matron Winch as a bold and skilful shoplifter.

Merchandise stolen from half a score of downtown stores and having a value of several hundred dollars has been recovered by Matron Winch and restored to the owners, with the exception of property taken from the Rurode Dry Goods company, for which Miss Redebaugh gave her check for $180. She will keep the property from that store.

Stole Big Bundle at One Time.

Miss Redebaugh's undoing came rapidly upon the heels of a theft she committed in the Rurode store Saturday, when she got away with a fine suit valued at $60, a silk dress valued at $35 and two handsome waists valued at $15. When the property was missed it was recalled that Miss Redebaugh had been trying on the suit and had looked at the other apparel. The police department was notified and on Wednesday afternoon Matron Winch was put on the case by Chief Lenz. Matron Winch went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Jones, 2510 Hoagland avenue, where Miss Redebaugh had rooms. A search revealed much of the missing property. The coat belonging to the stolen suit was found hanging in her closet. Miss Redebaugh had sent the skirt to a dressmaker's for alterations. The silk dress and two waists were found in a suitcase in her room.

Matron Winch took Miss Redebaugh from the Hoagland school Wednesday afternoon, at the close of her work for the day, and escorted her to police headquarters. She at first denied to Chief Lenz and Matron Winch that she had stolen anything, but finally broke down and confessed to the job at Rurode's and then came across with the story of numerous thefts of which no complaint had been made to the police.

Restores the Property.

Miss Redebaugh said she would restore all the property she had stolen and delivered a great variety of plunder to Matron Winch. So far as catalogued Miss Redebaugh had taken the following:

Rurode's—Suit, $60; silk dress, $35; two waists, $15; one hat, $8.50; one kimono, $12; one plume, $10.

Scheffer & Rinehart, jewelers—one ring, $10.

Rosenthal's—Two waists, $13.

Frank Dry Goods Company—One waist, $5.50.

Maud Gardner's Gift Shop—Six pins, one picture frame and a bracelet, $9.

Trenkley & Koerber, jewelers—One brooch, $5; silver bracelet, $1.50, and another, $1.

Young's jewelry store—One ring, $10.

Bease Jewelry Company—One Masonic ring, $18.

Wolf & Dessauer, department store—Silk hose, two pairs of gloves, one veil, liquid sachet tubes, length of cerise ribbon, pair silver shoe buckles. She had purchased a valuable silk skirt on which she had paid $10. The firm had about $25 worth of property stolen.

This property, save what she got from Rurode's and has paid for, has been restored.

In a State of Collapse.

Miss Redebaugh was taken to the Rurode store late Thursday afternoon and after an interview with E. C. Rurode, head of the firm, confessed everything and then collapsed. Miss Winch had to accompany Miss Redebaugh to her home, so nearly prostrated was the young shoplifter. Mr. Rurode declined to prosecute her and the other merchants were content to get their property back. Matron Winch has returned most of the articles stolen and they have been receipted for by the owners.

Miss Redebaugh has been in Fort Wayne for three years and was regarded as a capable teacher of domestic science. She was much liked by pupils in the schools and her culture and engaging manners had won her many friends and given her a place in society. She is the daughter of Dr. Redebaugh, of Sturgis, Mich., who was obliged to bring a patient to Fort Wayne today for an operation in one of the hospitals.

Miss Redebaugh has tendered her resignation and will leave the city with her father.

"The young woman is undoubtedly a kleptomaniac," said Chief Lenz today. "She had over $1,000 in the bank here that she had saved from her salary and she had no need to steal to keep herself well clothed and to buy the expensive little fineries that young women like. It was hard to believe that a pretty young woman, with elevated employment, good social position and everything to make her life pleasant and happy could become a confirmed and skilful thief such as Miss Redebaugh has turned out to be. But her confession and the recovery of the property settles it, of course."

That Miss Redebaugh was skilful is shown by the fact that when she robbed the Rurode store last Saturday she carried away the suit under the front of her cloak and the waists and silk dress in her muff.

Exposure of Miss Redebaugh caused a sensation in Fort Wayne, and more especially among teachers in the public schools and hundreds of young girls who had been her pupils.

The DOCTOR'S ADVICE

by Dr. Lewis Baker

The questions answered below are general in character, the symptoms or diseases are given and the answers should apply to any case of similar nature.

Those wishing further advice, free, may address Dr. Lewis Baker, College Building, College-Ellwood streets, Dayton, O., enclosing self-addressed, stamped envelope for reply. Full name and address must be given, but only initials or fictitious name will be used in my answers. The prescriptions can be filled at any well stocked drug store. Any druggist can order of wholesaler.

Elizabeth says: "I am troubled with a constant headache which also affects my eyes. My breath is awful, as I have a severe case of catarrh in the head and throat."

Answer: I receive daily hundreds of letters from people who have suffered as you do and who have been relieved with the following prescription: Make a wash by mixing one-half teaspoonful of Vilane powder, which you can purchase from any druggist in 2 oz. packages, and add to this one pint of warm water, use this in the nostrils daily to thoroughly cleanse them. A catarrh balm should be used with this. This is made by mixing one teaspoonful of Vilane powder with one ounce lard or vaseline and apply well up into the nostrils twice a day. If this is used daily your catarrh should soon vanish. It should, however, be used occasionally to prevent a return of the disease.

"C. G." writes: "If you know of anything that will cure dandruff, itching scalp and premature baldness, please let me know what it is."

Answer: For several years I have prescribed plain yellow mineol as superior to anything known for the treatment of diseased scalp. Get it in four-ounce jars with full directions. It quickly overcomes all diseases of hair and scalp and gives new vigor and intense natural color to the hair. Try it fairly and you will advocate its use for your friends.

"Mildred" writes: "I am constantly embarrassed because of the fact of my extreme thinness. I have absolutely no color in my face and lips and I am dull and lifeless most of the time. Please advise me what to do."

Answer: If you are so thin and pale and your lips and cheeks are colorless it is because your blood is deficient in red corpuscles. This can be easily overcome by the use of three-grain hypo-nuclane tablets, which can be had from any druggist in sealed cartons with full directions for taking. When the blood is enriched by the use of these tablets your weight will increase, the color will come back into your face and lips, and it will improve your general system so that you will become strong and healthy.

"Edna" writes: "I suffer with rheumatism all the time and I shall be very glad if you can tell me something to relieve me."

Answer: I can give you a prescription which will not only relieve, but should obliterate your rheumatism. This is my favorite remedy and from the number of letters received from people who have used it proves its value in rheumatism. The following is made by mixing well, taking a teaspoonful at meal times and again before retiring: Comp. essence cardiol, 1 oz.; comp. fluid balmwort, 1 oz.; syrup sarsaparilla comp., 5 ozs.; iodide of potassium, 2 drams; wine of colchicum, one-half ounce; sodium salicylate, 4 drams.

"Morris" asks: "I have suffered with a chronic cough for almost a year, and catch a fresh cold every few weeks. Nothing the doctor gives me helps, so I write to you."

Answer: You need a thorough laxative cough syrup, one that not only relieves but surely drives it from the system. The following regularly used will oust any curable cough or cold promptly: Obtain a 2½ oz. bottle of essence mentho-laxene, mix it with a home-made sugar syrup or honey as per directions on bottle.

"Anxious B." writes: "I have in recent years been threatened with appendicitis, but would never consent to an operation. Indigestion, constipation and sedentary habits cause me much suffering. Kindly prescribe for dyspepsia something which you think will cure me and prevent appendicitis."

Answer: The most scientific and satisfying treatment for your trouble is tablets triopepsine; packed pink, white and blue in sealed cartons with full directions. Most stomach disorders can be conquered by regular treatment.

"Mrs. G." writes: "I have many of the symptoms upon which you prescribe 'three-grain cadomene tablets.' May I, a woman, expect to find relief by taking these tablets?"

Answer: Yes, three-grain cadomene tablets are suited to any case of extreme nervousness where the vital forces seem to be ebbing away. They are tonic in action to a high degree and no ill person can take them without the greatest benefit following.

Farmer's Wife asks: "Will you please tell me how to overcome obesity?"

Answer: Obesity is burdensome. Excessive fat on the human body is unnatural and frequently results seriously. The best and safest method to reduce is to take regularly five-grain arbolone tablets. They are put up in sealed tubes with directions for home use, and any well stocked druggist can supply them.

"Sara C." writes: "I am constipated and have a greasy skin. Suffer from headache, indigestion and some kidney trouble. I wish you to recommend a remedy."

Answer: The best remedy to relieve and master chronic constipation is called three-grain sulpherb tablets made from sulphur, cream of tartar and herb medicines. Taken regularly the blood is purified, the bowels and liver stimulated into healthy action and health established. They are packed in sealed tubes with full directions. These tablets are splendid for children, as they do not gripe or sicken.

"Mamma:" I know of nothing better for bed-wetting than: 1 dram of tincture cubebs, 2 drams of tincture rhus aromatic and 1 oz. comp. fluid balmwort. Mix. The dose is 10 to 15 drops in water one hour before meals."

"Mr. C. P." writes: "What should I do to relieve a severe case of kidney and bladder disease? Urine is dark, foul of odor, and passage is irregular, painful, etc. Have depression, fever, chills, pains like rheumatism, and soreness in region of bladder."

Answer: For such symptoms as you describe, I prescribe my favorite formula under the name of balmwort tablets. This is a splendidly efficacious remedy for such abnormal conditions. Begin their use at once as per directions on each sealed tube.

An Everyday View of the Next Sunday School Lesson

SUNDAY, MARCH 22, 1914.

Lessons by the way.—Luke 13:18-35. Golden text, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven."—Matt. 7:21.

What a tiny thing is a mustard seed! A mere speck! And yet it has such great possibilities in it that it may unfold and become a plant that is to be compared with a tree! The mustard plants which we seen growing in our land do not usually grow more than two feet in height; but in Palestine they grow as tall as a man seated on horseback. Jesus took note of the mustard and said: "It is indeed the least of all seeds, but when it is grown it is the greatest among herbs and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof." (Matt. 13:32.) "So that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it." (Mark 4:32.)

Jesus had a gospel message for those who had gathered in a wayside group as he was passing from one part of the country to the other—from Perea to Jerusalem. While the mustard is one of the smallest things in the world, the kingdom of God is the greatest thing in the world—and in heaven. But they are alike in one particular—that is, expansiveness. It is wonderful indeed that birds can lodge in a mustard plant, but it is more wonderful that "God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." (John 3:16.) The birds lodge only momentarily in the mustard plant. They light there. Jesus did not say that they remained there and built their nests. But how is it with those who come to the kingdom of God? Ah! when they come in, they "go no more out!" (Rev. 3:12.)

It is not unlikely, but quite probable, that when Jesus talked about the mustard seed, he had one in his hand, or he may have been regarding a plant which was growing nearby, for he said: "A man took a grain of mustard seed and planted it in his garden and it became a tree."

When preparing to make a loaf of bread, the thing to do is to put a lot of "rising," or leaven, into a mass of flour. Jesus, when he came from heaven to earth, brought with him the "leaven" which was to produce the kingdom of God among men. The truth of it is all in the song which the children sometimes sing:

"Jesus once was a little child,
He came to us to show
The way to his pure sweet life above,
From our sinful life below."

And he taught us to pray, "Thy kingdom come." How? By his will being done on earth as it is in heaven. We may look upward to heaven and say, "The kingdom of God is something there," and then we may place our hands over our hearts, saying, "And something here." With a part of the "leaven" within us, we may do our share in leavening the whole world, helping to make it the kingdom of God indeed.

"I would be true, for there are those who trust me:
I would be pure, for there are those who care;
I would be strong, for there is much to suffer;
I would be brave, for there is much to dare;
I would be friend to all the poor and friendless;
I would be giver and forget the gift:
I would be humble for I know my weakness;
I would look up and love, and laugh and lift."

One who stood in the wayside group that day asked Jesus this question: "Lord, are there few that are saved?" And Jesus replied to him by likening salvation to a "narrow door." But all may enter, for Jesus said on another occasion, "Him that cometh to me, I will in no wise cast out." (John 6:37.) Salvation is "narrow" in the sense that we must be shut in with God, as Noah was in the ark. What it means to enter in can best be described by repeating the experience of a man whose story was recently reported by Norman Duncan in the Century. The man had been a Bowery tough, but was converted:

"I got up from my knees a new man—a new creature in Christ Jesus. I had been 'born again.' It is not a cant phrase. There are no other words which so accurately describe the change which had occurred within me—no other words to describe the completeness of it, the newness of life into which I had come, a child in righteous ways. I was regenerate. I had been born again. I was sober, and from that moment I never wanted alcohol. . . . I did want a bath instantly, but I was too dirty to be given one without precautions. And I wanted a clean shirt. I loathed my rags. I wanted to be clean. My word! how I craved a bath! And pride at once revived—the good pride of manhood. One of the brothers—we redeemed drunkards are all brothers—offered me five cents. I rejected it. I was no beggar. I was a man again, a gentleman! What did I want of a nickel I hadn't earned? I wanted work. First of all, I wanted sleep. I desperately needed a bed—and then I wanted a bath and a job. I had my bath in the morning. My word! what a gracious gift it was! And I got my job, too—and I got my clean shirt. But I lay that night in a Bowery lodging house, in a section reserved for the worst of us. It was a haven of rest and ease and seclusion after Solomon's cellar. . . . I lay awake all that night in tears and prayers and joyous aspirations. My tears were of contrition; my prayers were of rejoicing, of gratitude; my aspiration was toward work and service and self-respect and the love of all men. A wonderful night—a night in which those things I had cherished, but had long abandoned, were restored to me—hope, truth, love, pure ambition. . . . It seems to me now that in that night I traveled over the long way I had come—that I was once more in the company of the pure things of my boyhood. And in the morning I stumbled, rejoicing, to the labor of the first day in a new life."

The door may be "narrow," but many shall pass through it. We have Jesus' own word for it, that they shall come from the east and west, and from the north and south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God; not one who comes will be turned away. Among the "thousands of thousands" (Rev. 5:11) will be some from the dark continent of Africa, even from Barotse Land. It is said that to reach it one has to wind his way through vast, dreary tracts of uninhabited land, where antelopes, giraffes and ostriches may be seen running away at full speed during the day, and where during the night may be heard the barking of leopards, the yelping of foxes, the laughing of hyenas, and the roaring of lions. But the missionaries were unafraid, and began work in Barotse Land about twenty-five years ago. Slavery, witchcraft and bloodshed were characteristics of the land, but today there are several mission stations where earnest gospel work is sustained. There is a Bible school for the training of native teachers. Many will come from Barotse Land to sit down in the kingdom of God! And they will come from the islands of the sea—Japan. One the Inland sea a missionary ship called the Fukuin Maru has been sailing from place to place. Eleven years ago when Captain Bichel first appeared in these waters, every householder on the island of Satoda had signed a pledge not to rent his house, no matter how small and mean it might be, even for one evening, to the Fukuin Maru for a Christian service. But recently a new Fukuin Maru has been built, and there was great excitement when it hove in sight of Satoda. The people, including the children, waved flags, and the authorities offered the first use of their new public hall for a dedicatory service. Many came from different islands, young, middle-aged and old, to make confession of faith and be baptized. It is said that "when the service was over, warm greetings were exchanged, and all partook of their lunches together. Their faces glowed, and true Christian fellowship was everywhere manifest." It was a foretaste of that time when "many shall sit down in the kingdom of God."

And they shall come from the Fiji islands, once the cruelest habitations on the earth, where 90,000 people, almost the whole population, are Christians. The more we think of these far-away and out-of-the-way places the more our hearts burn within us, and we remember the words of our Savior about the great gathering of people out of every tribe and nation which shall be in heaven by and by. Let us each and all rejoice that we have an invitation to be there, and let us be determined that nothing shall deter us from being there! And let us do all we can to help others to be there! We have heard of a poor blind woman in Paris who put twenty-five francs ($5.40) into a plate at a missionary service. "You cannot afford so much," said one. "Yes, I can," she answered. On being pressed to explain, she said: "I am blind, and I said to my fellow straw workers, 'How much money do you spend in a year for oil in your lamps, when it is too dark to work night?' They replied, 'About twenty-seven francs.' So," said the poor woman, "I found that I could save so much in the year, because I am blind and do not need a lamp, and I give it to shed light in the dark, heathen lands."—Dr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Crafts in the Christian Herald.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a glass of Salts to flush kidneys if bladder bothers you.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.—Adv.

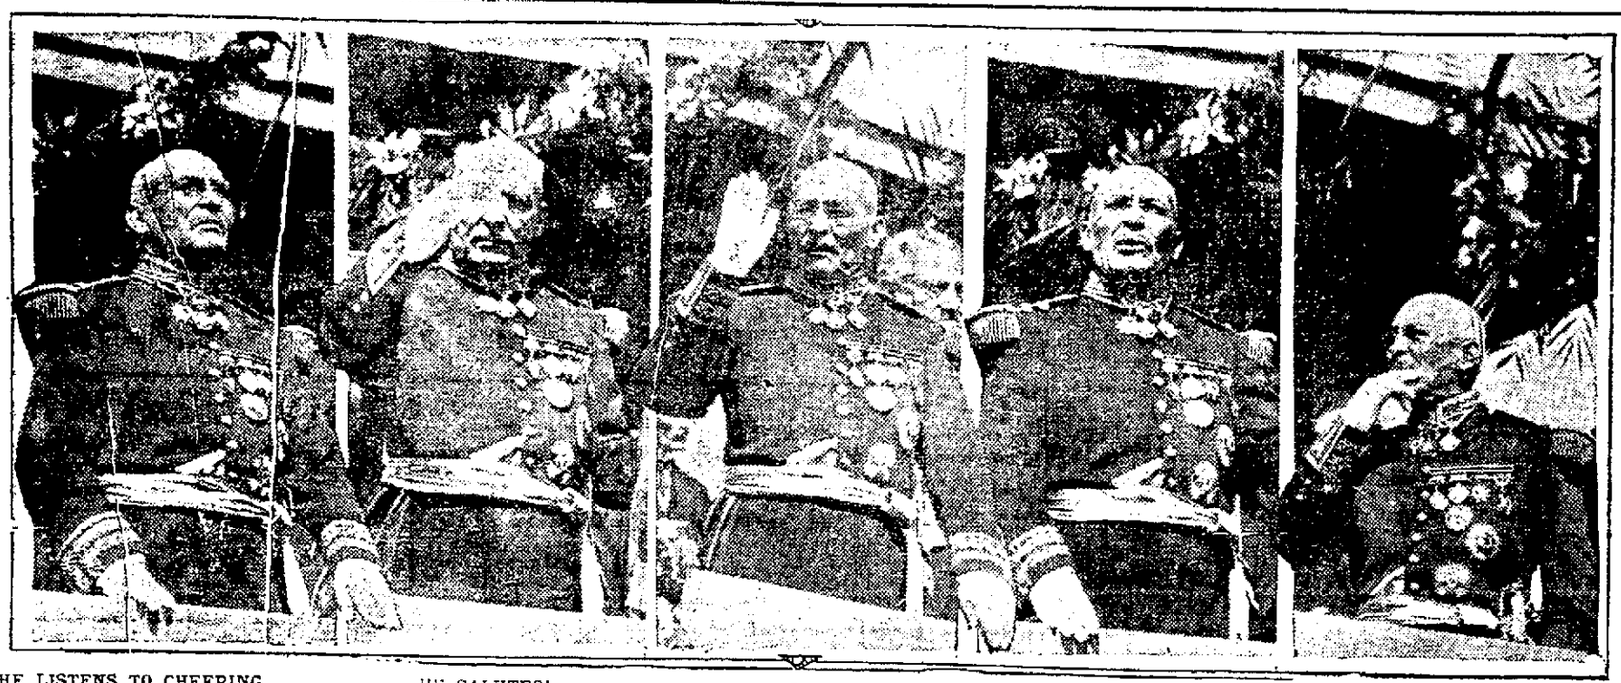
EXTRA! MR. HUERTA CAUGHT HUERTA-ING IN MEXICO CITY BY A UNITED STATES CAMERA.



HE LISTENS TO CHEERING. HE SALUTES! SH-H-H! HE MAKES A SPEECH. GETTING KINDA DRY.

The above dandy snapshot of Gen. Victoriano Huerta, dictator of Mexico, and personal alarm clock to President Wilson, were taken in Mexico City a few days ago by W. G. Shepherd, special correspondent of this newspaper. The occasion was the decoration of the flag of the 29th regiment, Huerta's personal body guard, with the order of military merit. There was a big crowd and Shepherd stood in its midst and took about 20 shots at the general with his camera. Huerta was loudly cheered and he made a speech.

Just One Thing Missing—

¶ And that one thing is—the presence of the pianist in person.

¶ Everything else is there. The clear, ringing melody—the phrasing—the tempo—the shading—the individuality of the musician who played the composition are faithfully recorded and perfectly reproduced by the Apollo Reproducing Player Piano.

¶ This is the twentieth century musical instrument. It is in a distinct class of its own simply because it automatically reproduces the hand playing of master pianists in all its perfection.

Don't fail to hear the wonderful new Apollo Reproducing Player Piano. If only for the sake of musical enjoyment, drop in and hear it demonstrate itself.

CHINESE EGGS TO REDUCE THE COST

Fruit from the Orient is Expected in Eastern Cities.

DEALERS UP IN ARMS

Pittsburg, March 20.—Pittsburg is soon to have the experience of testing Chinese eggs, the importation of which has caused a large amount of protest on the part of poultrymen in California, the state first affected by shipment of eggs from the celestial empire. Eggs can be purchased for four cents a dozen in China and have ceased to be a novelty in San Francisco and other cities of the Golden Gate state. They also have been received in markets as far east as Chicago and are expected in Pittsburg within a few days.

In California the poultrymen consider the Chinese egg a menace to the product of the American hen. They have taken many steps to arouse public sentiment against the invasion, which was confined to the western state for a time, but is rapidly working toward the shores of the Atlantic. The poultrymen first raised the cry that the Chinese hen was a scavenger, which was met with the reply of her defenders that all hens are. It was said that the imported eggs might spread disease. The state board of health ordered Prof. M. E. Jaffa, of the state pure food laboratory, to make an investigation for germs and to make an analysis of the liquid contents of the shell. No report has been made yet.

The Chinese egg is considered of such grave importance that it was given the bulk of attention at the annual convention of the carlot egg shippers in their annual convention in Kansas City March 2 and 3. The principal subject for discussion was "Foreign Egg Importation." The first importations of Chinese eggs were not up to American standards with regard to quality and grading, but each succeeding shipment, it is said, shows an improvement. The trade in Chinese eggs is growing despite the protests of the domestic egg men of the west, who profess to see danger to the American egg business, which is estimated to amount to more than $750,000,000 a year.

With eggs at four cents a dozen in China, ocean freightage with refrigeration 44½ cents a case, and the cost of fillers and cases averaging one cent a dozen, all of which figures are said to be correct, Chinese eggs can be placed in San Francisco for 6 cents a dozen and in Chicago for 12½ cents a dozen. The dealer in Chinese eggs has been holding prices almost up to the level of the domestic article, but always is in a position to meet any cut that may be made. A writer in the Egg Reporter derides the efforts of the western poultrymen to create a boycott against Chinese eggs, saying it is a poor time to make an appeal of this kind to the consumer.

COUNT FIFTY! NO SORE LAME BACK

Ah! Pain is gone!

Quickly?—Yes. Almost instant relief from soreness, stiffness, lameness and pain follows a gentle rubbing with "St. Jacobs Oil."

Apply this soothing, penetrating oil directly upon the ache, and like magic, relief comes. "St. Jacobs Oil" conquers pain. It is a harmless backache, lumbago and sciatica cure which never disappoints, can not injure and doesn't burn or discolor the skin.

Straighten up! Quit complaining! Stop those tortuous "stitches." In a moment you will forget that you ever had a back, because it won't hurt or be stiff or lame. Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of "St. Jacobs Oil" from your druggist now and get this lasting relief.—Adv.

AVIATORS TEST SURGEONS' SKILL

Complicated Injuries from Falling Present New Problems.

ONE STRANGE CASE

New York, March 20—Medicine is soaring into the empyrean of sign endeavor to keep up with the monoplane. It has to, for, according to the Medical Record, aviators get such complicated troubles by accidents that surgery and medicine has to reach out into as daring flights as do they to cure them.

"The daring with which modern enterprise and inventive genius have conquered the seemingly insuperable difficulties of aerial flights," says the Record, "is fully equalled by the zeal which many apparently baffling problems of medicine have been attacked. This simile is suggested by the important case reported in the Lancet by Dr. V. E. Negus, late house surgeon in King's College hospital, London."

The aviator who was 19 years old, was a youth of unusual courage. His monoplane got out of control when he was sixty feet from the ground, and in the fall his left leg was broken. The bones concerned, the tibia and fibia, were wired together in accordance with one of the new "stunts" of surgery. The process did not prove satisfactory, however, for the fractures were very difficult to manage.

Sir Watson Cheyne removed the wires and set the bones together by means of Lanesplate, which is a contrivance not unlike the plates which are bolted on either side of rails. Here was a case of infected compound fracture, and in a few days the patient developed lockjaw. His leg was amputated and the new intravenous method of giving anaesthesia was used, hedonal being employed.

Then the lockjaw had to be cured. Morphine, chloral and atropine in heroic doses were administered. After that strychnine and inhalations of alcohol bubbling through absolute alcohol were thought advisable. Then chloroform through a mask was inhaled.

"Well, the symptoms were still distressing and the patient got a few doses of paraldehyde, potassium bromide, hedonal and tetanus antitoxin in addition to the remedies which he had already imbibed. That was about all, for the patient regained his strength and conquered the tetanus. He then had a secondary operation on the stump of his leg. Eight weeks after he fell the aviator was discharged as cured from the hospital and drove away in his automobile, saying that he did not care and that one of these days he would again essay a flight in the air.

"This case is reported in detail," observes the Record, "because it illustrates in many ways the trend and successes of modern surgery and medicine. The one patient had experienced in the course of his eight weeks in the hospital the following up-to-date methods of treatment:

"Wiring of bones.
"Lane plating.
"Amputation for tetanus.
"Intravenous anaesthesia.
"Antitoxin treatment by lumbar punctures.
"Intravenous injections of anti-spasmodics.

"The six up-to-the-minute methods of procedure used in the cure of the aviator, whose condition was dangerous and apparently hopeless, are given as an illustration of the fact that as new inventions come the physician is able to meet all the troubles which they cause."

CAN A RINK BAR SOLDIERS?

Army Men Denied Admission on Woman's Objection.

Chapman, Kan., March 20.—Whether the management of a skating rink has the right to deny United States soldiers in uniform admission is to be determined as a result of an incident here. Ten uniformed soldiers from Fort Riley were refused admission because a young woman on the floor objected to their presence. The incident was similar to action taken at Junction City two years ago and which resulted in the closing of the town skating rink.

According to Dr. Clement Lucas, of England, the human family is likely to become a one-toed race.

"Dustless" Vacuum Carpet Cleaner and SWEEPER

Worth $25 Price to Introduce $8.10

Ballbearing Operated just like a carpet sweeper as illustrated, to which it is in every way superior. Easy to operate, practical and durable.

It is doing daily duty, in thousands of homes—housewives in all parts of the world are using its powerful suction to keep their homes free from dust.

Many housewives are really startled to see the amount of dirt it removes from carpets and rugs which look clean to them—which they thought were clean.

The "Dustless" Vacuum Cleaner requires no electricity, no hand pumping; you simply run it over the floor like a carpet sweeper and the turning of the wheels creates a vacuum which draws all the dust, dirt, germs, moths, etc., from on top and beneath carpets and rugs into a bag inside the sweeper. Thus you actually get rid of the dust instead of stirring it up to breathe or settle again.

With the broom woman fights dirt and dust which is breathed into the lungs and dust is the chief cause of lung disease, especially pneumonia and tuberculosis.

It is dangerous for a child to creep or play on a carpet or rug that is not Vacuum cleaned—because he is right down amongst the bugs and bacteria.

All disease has a cause. You can sidestep the cause and elude disease, if you keep your floors free from death-dealing bacteria and microbes by the use of our "Dustless" Vacuum Cleaner.

SPECIAL PRICE—FREE TRIAL—To any of the first 15 women in your city who send us $8.10 and the names and addresses of 10 housewives you believe would be interested in the purchase of our Vacuum Cleaner, we will ship one machine prepaid and allow you 15 DAYS FREE TRIAL. If the cleaner is not entirely satisfactory return it to us within 15 days at our expense and we will gladly refund your money.

Your Grandmother's Remedy for Purifying the Blood

And Renovating the System in the Springtime

ASK FOR SULPHERB TABLETS.

What was grandmother's unexcelled remedy? Haven't you heard of it? Yes, you have! It was sulphur, cream of tartar and molasses. The main trouble with it was its nauseous taste.

A modern method puts the cream of tartar and sulphur into a sugar-coated tablets and mixes them with herbs, roots, etc., making a wonderful tonic and blood purifier and system cleanser.

Just try Sulpherb Tablets (not sulphur tablets), but Sulpherb—remember the name—and get the tablets in sealed tubes at 50c per tube.

Grown-up people and children who don't feel well, who are constipated or sluggish, or who have pimples, boils, carbuncles, ulcers and the like, can soon rid the system of these impurities by taking this good old-fashioned remedy in modern form. Their action satisfies or money is refunded by the Prescription Products Company, Dayton, Ohio. A free trial sent to any address. Buy of any well-stocked druggists.

CLEANLINESS AND GODLINESS

are an attraction of the Easter season symbolized in the chastity and purity of the lilies, therefore do not neglect your physical health to the detriment of your spiritual welfare. As Easter marks the commencement of Spring, it makes an excellent time to consider the laws of hygiene in connection with the best kind of a bath room and bathing facilities for your home.

AGED FARMER DIES IN POOR HOUSE

Henry Etter Stricken as Son Came to Take Him From Infirmary.

Auburn, Ind., March 20.—Death intervened and changed a journey planned for Henry Etter's future and departure from the county infirmary into a death scene at the county farm Thursday afternoon when the aged DeKalb county farmer suffered a fatal heart attack.

His son, William Etter, came here Wednesday and had completed the details necessary for the removal of his father from the infirmary to his son's home at Akron, Ohio.

The plans were to remove the aged Mr. Etter to Akron Thursday, where he would have a place of peace and quiet to spend his last days. While Alva Gregg, superintendent of the infirmary, asked Mr. Etter how he felt Thursday morning, the latter seemed overjoyed at the prospects of leaving the infirmary and said that he was feeling unusually well.

Within a few minutes of that time the old gentleman suffered a heart stroke and death was almost instant.

Mr. Etter came to the county infirmary from his home at Corunna three weeks ago, and since that time his condition had been critical. He is survived by eight children who are Ora Etter, Fort Wayne; Mrs. Robert Bush, Victoria, Ohio; William Etter, Barberton, Ohio; Mrs. Olive Shaffer, Delphos, Ohio; Frank Etter, Jackson, Ohio; Mrs. Minnie Isch, Akron, Ohio; Mrs. William McDonald and Miss Pearl Etter, of Corunna.

FARMERS FIGHT FIRE AMID PERILS

Huntington, Ind., March 20.—Fifty gallons of kerosene in a burning smoke house failed to daunt farmers who rushed to save the building on George Stenzel's farm, three and a half miles south of Huntington, on the Mt. Etna road. About 4 o'clock in the afternoon Mrs. Ovid Eviston, who lives a half mile south of the Stenzel farm, saw flames shooting from the Stenzel smoke house and at once telephoned an alarm to the residents of the neighborhood. About fifteen men responded at once and rushed to the Stenzel farm. The smoke house was wrapped in flames when they arrived and it was at once apparent that the building could not be saved. The men then turned their attention to the house, which was seriously menaced.

TAX SUITS ARE BEGUN.

Auburn, Ind., March 20.—Prosecutor Nyce has commenced the first series of cases in which, if successful, he will sell under execution, property on which taxes have not been paid for a number of years. Other cases will be commenced. The test cases are seven in number and come from Butler. In each case the city of Butler is made one of the defendants. The defendants in the several suits are E. L. Fosdick, Oliver Oberlin, D. and L. McNabb, Harriet Slessman, Lucinda Hoover, A. R. DeLealy and Richard H. Murch. The property is unimproved and consists of town lots that are not worth the sewer and street paving assessments, hence the owners are willing to let them go.

AUDITORIUM FOR MARKLE.

Markle, Ind., March 20.—A movement to erect in this town a large and thoroughly appointed public assembly hall is well under way and much the larger part of the $10,000 required has already been subscribed. The new building as planned will be of brick, with a slate roof, with a rear entrance for unloading trunks, etc. The inside of the room will be 60x110, with a stage 26x60. This stage will be so arranged that the dressing room walls could be pushed up through the ceiling, thus allowing floor space for basketball games and such things. A netting front would also be arranged to pull down at the front of the stage. There would be a least two front entrances and side entrances for fire protection.

LONG HELD GIRL IN JAIL.

Warsaw, Ind., March 20.—Grace Harter, the fifteen-year-old Silver Lake girl who was found guilty of delinquency several months ago, and who has been held in the county jail ever since, was taken to the girls' school, near Indianapolis, on Thursday by Mrs. Jacob Huffer. The delay in taking the girl to the school was due to the fact that the institution was under quarantine for diphtheria for several months. The quarantine has now been raised and new girls are being received as rapidly as they can be handled. Lou Alford, thirteen years old, is in the Kosciusko county jail and is also on the waiting list.

SUE COURT OFFICIAL.

Huntington, Ind., March 20.—Suit to prevent the collection of $70.23 as costs in the court procedure in which a petition for a drain in Union township, filed October 8, 1912, was concerned, has been filed in circuit court by attorneys for five owners of property in the district east of Huntington. Charles E. Griffith, county clerk, is made defendant in the suit. The drain petition was filed about two years ago by E. E. Souers. It was later dismissed by Mr. Souers. The plaintiffs in the action taken on Thursday are William D. Anson, Augusta Anson, Henry Fahl, Fred Bolanz and Clinton Morgan.

HOLDS COURT OF INQUIRY.

Bluffton, Ind., March 20.—A court of inquiry was conducted before Mayor Mock and a number of small boys were persuaded to tell of thefts and depredations committed at the C., B. & C. station recently. The boys' actions were wanton vandalism in most cases and much of the stuff stolen was destroyed. The evidence has been placed in the hands of the juvenile officer and any action that may be taken against the juvenile offenders will come through his department.

CLUSTER STREET LIGHTS.

Portland, Ind., March 20.—A committee representing the Portland Commercial association will start today on a canvass of the city in an effort to raise $4,500 for use in the purchase and installation of cluster street lights throughout the business districts of the city. The money will be raised by popular subscription in the city proper, to furnish the current for lighting after their installation.

TWO IN FAMILY DIE OF TYPHOID.

Huntington, Ind., March 20. Dale Pickens, who had been in the Huntington hospital since March 6, suffering from typhoid fever, is dead. He is the second member of the family to die from the disease, his mother having died on January 10. Ernest Pickens, his father, has been an invalid for several months following an attack of typhoid fever. Mr. Pickens first contracted the disease, and Mrs. Pickens was stricken while nursing her husband. The body of Dale Pickens will probably be taken to the home near Simpson. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

BLUFFTON MAN DIES OF CANCER.

Bluffton, Ind., March 20.—Benton A. Temple passed away at the home of his sister, Mrs. Michael Grey, on Wabash avenue, after a long illness with a cancerous growth about his head. His condition had been very serious for several weeks.

Mr. Temple was born in Ohio on June 10, 1863, the son of Sylvester and Ann (Gillingham) Temple. He never married and besides Mrs. Grey the only surviving relative is a brother, Sylvester Temple of this county.

AT 77 SUBMITS TO OPERATION.

Bluffton, Ind., March 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Lon Price have come home from Fort Wayne, where they spent the day at the Lutheran hospital, that they might be with, or near her grandfather, J. F. Templeton, who underwent an operation of a serious nature. Mr. Templeton is nearing 77 years of age and his advanced years made the operation more severe and the chances of recovery more uncertain.

DIES IN NEIGHBOR'S HOME.

Delphos, March 20.—W. J. Veach, farmer, prominent in Van Wert county politics, died suddenly at the home of a neighbor, C. Hook, near Middle Point, yesterday afternoon. Heart trouble was the cause of his demise. He was nearly 60 years old and his wife and seven children survive. Funeral services will be held from the Lutheran church at Middle Point Friday morning.

There are 20,567,000 horses in the United States, valued at $2,278,222,000.

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

SAVE YOUR HAIR! IF FALLING OUT OR DANDRUFF---25 CENT DANDERINE

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hairs—new hair—growing all over the scalp.—Adv.

HIS FIFTH WIFE QUITS HIM.

Arkansas Man's Latest Matrimonial Venture a Failure.

Fort Smith, Ark., March 20.—Robert O'Brien, a prosperous farmer living near Van Buren, whose matrimonial record consists of four divorced wives, and who recently married a fifth, is "wifeless" again, it developed Mrs. O'Brien, No. 5 has left. Her whereabouts are unknown.

O'Brien's latest matrimonial venture took place February 7, last. It is said his wife left him the next day. When she essayed to change her name from Mrs. Daisy Brown to Mrs. O'Brien she declared that O'Brien's former wives "didn't know how to handle Bob," and she asserted her efforts would prove successful. All of O'Brien's former wives are living near Van Buren. Three divorced O'Brien and he divorced the fourth.

Did Siegel Spend Money of Widows and Children to Buy Titled Husband for his Daughter?

New York, March 20.—"My mother is a widow and not very strong, but she has to wash and iron for a living. She has been sick in bed since last Thursday with a heavy cold, and we haven't even money enough to get a doctor. She thinks if Henry Siegel knew she needed a doctor he would give her the $28 she deposited in his bank.

"I am the only boy mamma has, 15 years old, and when mamma fell sick I had to leave school and go to work. I am the only one bringing in anything now, so for heaven's sake try and do something for her.

"JOHN CONNORS."

John Connors' mother is one of 15,000 people, all in moderate circumstances, who lost their savings because the banking laws of New York permitted Henry Siegel to take in $2,500,000 of deposits in his private bank and use every cent of it in his business, with no security to the depositors except a $100,000 bond. The letter was written to one of the lawyers for the depositors' organization.

Mrs. Connors lives on the fourth floor of a Harlem tenement house. Her face is pale from illness and has the heavy lines of care and privation. Though scarcely able to get about she is again working at the washtub.

It is reported by a woman who heads an organization of the defrauded depositors that five people have gone insane as a result of having lost every penny they had. More than a thousand girls were thrown out of work by the closing of the two Siegel-Vogel stores.

Through the interest of John Claflin, owner of other department stores, many of the girls have been provided with new jobs.

But no such worry confronts the Countess Dentice de Frasso, daughter of Henry Siegel. It was several years ago that the Siegels announced her engagement to Count Charles Dentice de Frasso, of Rome, noted equestrian and sportsman and member of one of the oldest families in Italy.

The wedding followed shortly afterward. The terms of the marriage settlement were not announced, nor is it likely that the accountants at work on the Siegel books will ever discover just how much of the missing funds traveled across the water to buy pearls for the countess and polo ponies for the count.

SANDWICHES AND THAT DEMON RUM

Combination of Bread and Meat Costs More Than It is Worth.

SAY THE SCIENTISTS

New York, March 20.—Science has tested the sandwich and has found that it is shy on calories; that it costs more than it is worth and that for a cheap meal the public should look elsewhere.

Another sin laid upon the meat laden fold of bread is that is accompanies a thirst for alcohol, for beer, whisky and the like. This is not the Raines law sandwich either, but the kind which is handed across the counter by the maid with henna hair. That font of wisdom, the journal of the American Medical Association, takes a whole page to the ham sandwich. The editor says he is justified in doing this because the sandwich has been parading about as the poor man's lunch especially at the saloon which is called the poor man's club.

Dr. Max Rubner, physiologist and pathologist of Berlin—where they make sandwiches and called them Schnittchen—has observed there a tendency to introduce the American sandwich as a part of the daily food intake. He has bought all kinds of sandwiches—bratwurst, headcheese and smoked tongue—and has been estimating their value as food in calories, giving their proportion of protein, fat and carbohydrates.

Dr. Rubner reaches the conclusion that the growing use of the meat laden sandwich is attributable in Germany, at least, to the growing use of tea and coffee, and also the greater consumption of sugar and alcohol. Alcohol leads to the lowering of the protein of the diet, which is thus equalized by the albuminous sandwich. Added to this is the growing tendency, especially among the unmarried classes, to eat outside the house and to frequent the time saving sandwich dispensing restaurants.

"The sandwich as here represented," continues the Journal of the American Medical associations," exemplifies a tendency to increase rather than diminish the proportion of food of animal origin in the dietary of man; but aside from the fact that it is instituting a larger participation in the use of meat and working contrary to what students of dietetics regard as desirable, this form of food is not economical as it is popularly believed to be.

"It is true that a palatable sandwich can be purchased for a few cents. The same proportionate expenditure in the household or in the purchase of a warm meal that deserves the name will procure surprisingly more nutriment, even in the more expensive type of restaurant.

"The sandwich," it is observed, "is looked on as the 'poor man's lunch' and current practice is tending to increase its use. If it is really desirable to increase the purchasing power of a small daily income so as to augment the part devoted to nutriment, the reform cannot be instituted by pointing to the supposedly inexpensive lunch counter."

ELEPHANTS SET STABLE ON FIRE

Wanted More Heat and Toss Oil Stove Into the Hay Loft.

ONE BADLY BURNED

New York, N. Y. March 20.—Their boisterous demand for more heat being ignored, two elephants wrecked their temporary quarters in the business centre of Hackensack, N. J., and set fire to the place. They soon got warm in the zero weather while being pursued by a great crowd.

The elephants belong to the Robinson's circus. During the winter months they picked up a few odd pennies for the company by "barnstorming" in a "drunken man and policeman" act on the stage. They are valued at $8,000 each.

When the elephants had grunted and roared for heat all morning their manager bought a small round oil stove, about three feet high, and placed it in the passage immediately in front of the big pen in which the animals were anchored to stakes. It was apparent that they looked upon this little thing with contempt. But they waited, and when, at two o'clock, there was no more heat, the biggest one, Tom, reached out with his trunk, encircled the oil stove, and threw it over his head.

It fell in the hay loft and immediately set fire to a ton or more of loose hay piled on the second floor of the barn, in the rear of the Madison House, and in the busiest part of Hackensack. Then the elephants soon began to feel the heat. Their backs got warm first. Then became to warm, because parts of the burning floor above were dropping on them. A particularly large piece of the blazing ceiling fell immediately in the rear of big Tom, so immediately that his tail caught fire.

That was more than he had calculated on, and Tom, with a mighty plunge sidewise, tore up the anchor stakes and swept both his companion and himself out through the side of the barn.

The cry of fire had been sounded and as the elephants raced away a crowd was gathering. The animals were pursued several blocks until their manager, hearing of the excitement, ran from the hotel, overtook them and quieted their fears with a few picturesque phrases not in the Sunday schools books.

Part of the barn was saved and the elephants found comfort in new quarters in the Lyric theatre, where they will performed the rest of the week.

QUART OF PICKLES A MEAL.

Man Develops a Sour Taste Where Most Persons' Are Sweet.

Oakland, Ore., March 20.—A strange taste, aided and abated by a capable appetite, has been found in a man who eats a quart of dill pickles at every meal. Three-quarters of a gallon is his daily capacity.

He himself does not look upon it as remarkable, for it is his opinion that one of the fundamental tastes, which in the case of most persons is sweet, in his case simply happened to be sour.

J. J. Engledrum, of Mishawaka, With Delegation of Unemployed.

South Bend, Ind., March 20.—J. J. Engledrum, a resident of Mishawaka, is one of a big delegation of unemployed men from San Francisco on their march to Washington, according to word Engledrum has sent his relatives in Mishawaka. The Indiana man went west several months ago for his health, and recently was elected adjutant general of the delegation because of his interest in affairs of laboring men. Engledrum is wealthy, having made a fortune several years ago in a real estate boom in South Bend and in his home city.

JURY TO SETTLE SMALL ACCOUNT

Case of Attorney Harris for $33 Fee from William Stuck is in Hand.

NEWS OF THE COURTS

Late this afternoon the circuit court jury retired to deliberate the evidence in the case of Emmett V. Harris against William Stuck, sr., to determine the rights of the matter in the plaintiff's demand for a fee of $33 for services as attorney. The cause took up a good part of the day in the circuit court and altogether the costs will be a deal out of proportion to the amount in dispute.

Alleging that she was struck by the defendant's automobile and badly injured, Marie Vevia, through her next friend, George Vevia, has commenced suit in the circuit court against Charles A. Dunkelberg for $1,000 damages.

The following divorce cases have been dismissed from the superior court: Rose G. Carpenter vs. James F. Carpenter, and Emma G. Sovine vs. William H. Sovine.

The case of Rhoades vs. Kelsey has been set for trial June 24 in the superior court.

In the superior court Henry Minnich has sued S. Bash & Company for $35.25 on account.

Says Car Bumped Him From Behind.

In a suit filed in the circuit court by John Loretta against the Ohio Electric railway for $2,000 damages for personal injuries, the plaintiff says that while employed at the corner of Main and Clinton streets repairing the track of the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company, a car belonging to the Ohio company came along while he was "stooped over with his head to west," and bumped him from behind. He suffered a broken leg and other injuries. He says no gong was sounded or other warning given him of the approach of the car.

Says Wife Was Influenced Away.

In a suit filed in the superior court Walter Bishop sues David H. Hartman, his father-in-law, for $10,000 damages, charging that the defendant has alienated the affections of the plaintiff's wife. Bishop sets out that he was married to Cora M. Hartman January 17, 1912, and that he has supported his wife and their baby well. It is alleged that after the defendant had persuaded the plaintiff and his wife to come and live with him the defendant in artful ways to turn the wife against her husband, finally persuading her to file a divorce suit against him, to which no defense was made, although the charges made against him were wholly false. Bishop says that when he returned to the Hartman home at night from work, following the filing of the suit, he was driven away. Hartman is represented as worth $15,000.

Wants Pay for Breach of Contract.

Robert B. Garmire has brought suit in the superior court against the Luella Derbyshire company and Dr. Luella Derbyshire for $1,500 for breach of contract. The company is a mail order medical concern and Garmire says Dr. Derbyshire owned practically all of the stock. She is alleged to have entered into a contract with the plaintiff to sell him the stock, work for him the rest of her life and fulfill other covenants, all of which she is charged with having failed to do, whereas the plaintiff has spent over $1,100 building up the business. He wants reimbursement.

Wants Divorce and $2,000.

In the superior court Vergie Carpenter sues Wesley Carpenter for divorce, the custody of three children, from one to four years old, and $2,000 alimony. She charges that he is a drunkard, spends all his money for drink, fails to provide and has made it necessary for her to depend on her parents for support.

Notes of the Courts.

In the circuit court Robert E. Hoffman has sued Robert William Kingan and others to quiet title to real estate.

The Fort Wayne Furnas Ice Cream company has filed suit in the circuit court against the Consumers' Ice company for $2,000 damages, alleging that it suffered in that amount by failure of the defendant to fulfill its contract to deliver to plaintiff 726,805 pounds of ice at a rate of $1.90 per ton. The Furnas company says that during the hot weather the Consumers' company failed to deliver and ice purchased from other sources cost more.

The circuit court jury that tried the case of Robert Allen against the Nickel Plate railroad, wherein $2,000 was demanded for personal injuries, brought in a verdict for plaintiff for $222.50.

LICENSED TO WED.

City Laboratory to Be Given Equipment for Chemical and Physical Tests.

THE MUNICIPAL NEWS

Pursuant to Mayor Bosey's pledge that the materials used by the city in public work shall be subjected to approved scientific tests, the board of works and City Chemist Eugene A. Schott are investigating the matter of what equipment will be necessary to enable such tests to be made in the city laboratory maintained in connection with the health office. Mr. Schott is a very capable chemist and is also familiar with the work of making physical tests and it is believed the work that ought to be done can all be performed in the city laboratory wholly under municipal auspices and direction. It is purposed to equip to test asphalt, cement, paving brick, stone and coal as well as other materials and supplies used by the city.

WILL PUT STAKES IN STATE ST.

Disputed Width of Thoroughfare to Be Settled Tomorrow.

Tomorrow morning at 9:30 the board of works and city engineer will meet with the State street property owners to settle the long vexed question of the width that thoroughfare is to be given. It will be made wider than it now is. It is probable that fifty-five feet will be settled upon as the width from the State street bridge over the St. Joe river to the east. The park board wanted the street for a boulevard and it was placed in that body's control and later withdrawn by the city council. Since then there has been much dispute as to what width to give the street.

RESTAURANTS GRADING HIGH.

Fort Wayne Eating Houses Pronounced Cleanest in the State.

Inspector Eugene A. Schott and Deputy Charles Josse, of the health department, are proceeding with the inspection of restaurants and groceries in the city and report conditions for the most part satisfactory. No regular system of inspection is employed as to the time of visitation. The inspectors go out as they see fit and there is no means of proprietors knowing just when their places will be examined. Inspection will be going on more or less all of the time.

Restaurant inspections so far made under the new system of scoring points have been highly satisfactory. Inspector Schott stated today that the cleanliness of restaurants was remarkable and the readiness of proprietors to conform to regulations a surprise. The score cards shows them where they are deficient and all promise to make good. H. E. Barnard, state chemist, who was here last week, declared Fort Wayne restaurants to be the cleanest in the state of Indiana, and he complimented the inspection department of the health board for what had been accomplished.

DRAINAGE FOR A NEW DISTRICT.

Board of Works Adopts Resolutions for Several Sewers.

The board of works has adopted resolutions and approved specifications for a number of sewers that will drain a rapidly developing area of the south side. These resolutions were adopted last night for sewers in the alley between Piqua avenue and Victoria avenue, from Darrow street to Rudisill boulevard, in the alley between Victoria and Calhoun, Darrow to Rudisill, in the alley between Calhoun and Harrison, Darrow to Rudisill, in the said Harrison, Darrow to Rudisill; Hoagland to alley, east of Fairfield, and from alley north of Rudisill to Branning and alley south of Rudisill from alley east of Fairfield to Hoagland; alley between Arlington and South Wayne from Rudisill to Branning.

The petition from the Bible Training school and other south side interests asking for the paving of South Wayne from the present terminus of the pavement to Rudisill boulevard, and for the extension of the South Wayne avenue street car line on Rudisill a half block west of South Wayne avenue, was taken under advisement. The board will arrange a conference with the traction company.

The board granted a franchise to the Fort Wayne Electric works to construct a subtrack across the Union street track elevation bridge from the Pennsylvania line into the company's works.

The board has under advisement the bids for placing fire escapes on the city hall. The following bids were received: W. L. Logan & Son, $222; Fort Wayne Foundry & Machine company, $325; the Engineering company, $352.72 and the Weiler-Weiss company, $426.

NEW STATION INSPECTED.

Late yesterday afternoon Mayor Bosey and Messrs. Singrey and Hilgeman, of the board of works, made a tour of inspection at the new passenger station of the Pennsylvania railroad on Baker street, which is to be opened to public business next Monday. They were pleased with what they saw.

TWO DAIRIES SHOW BAD.

Of twenty-five dairy wagons inspected yesterday by Inspector Eugene A. Schott, Deputy Josse and the sanitary officers of the health department the product of only two was found unfit to pass. In both instances visible dirt was found.

STILL AFTER THE "CURE."

Cigarette fiends continued today to visit the health office to receive free treatment for cure of the cigarette habit. Notwithstanding the professional doubt of the entire efficiency of the nitrate of silver throat bath as a cure for cigarettes, the victims of the vice continue to show faith.

PROGRESSIVES START TO WORK

County Leaders Select Committee to Obtain Candidates.

THE POLITICAL GOSSIP

A half hundred voters who have declared themselves members of the progressive party met this afternoon at the assembly room of the court house and under the leadership of County Chairman H. F. J. Reiter discussed plans for the coming county campaign.

A committee to receive names of prospective candidates was appointed as follows: Chauncey Hoffeltinger, D. N. Foster, Dr. W. D. Calvin, C. M. Preble and Lee J. Hartzell. Chairman Reiter and Secretary Frank P. Will are to serve with the committee in selecting candidates for nomination.

Among other things it was announced that Crawford Griswold seeks the nomination for trustee of Washington township, and A. J. Baker was mentioned as a candidate for county commissioner from the Second district.

Democrats Return Home.

The smile of victory was worn by the Twelfth district delegation of democrats returning today from the state convention at Indianapolis. They say it was some fight to put through the nomination of George A. Bittler, of this city, as a candidate for state treasurer, and many peculiar things took place during the balloting. The Bittler boomers were led by State Senator S. B. Fleming, District Chairman E. G. Hoffman and John Wessel, former secretary of the Allen county democratic committee.

In Fort Wayne today Bittler's nomination is the chief topic for conversation in the business district and the young man was showered with congratulatory telegrams from local admirers. It is predicted that his election next fall will be easy.

LOESCH FOR SENATOR.

Former G. O. P. County Chairman Gets Place on Ticket.

George H. Loesch, former chairman of the Allen county republican central committee is to be the republican candidate for senator in Allen county, according to an announcement made today and Mr. Loesch has filed notice of his candidacy.

Fort Wayne republicans are optimistically inclined regarding their strength in the coming county race and it is said that their list of candidates will be completed within a few days.

While the law provides that notices of candidacy must be filed five days before the primary date, the candidates in the Allen county list are being asked to file their notices ten days before the primaries, April 3, giving the election commissioners sufficient time to prepare for the balloting.

BOARDING SCHOOL MISS IN MYSTERY

Chicago Police Attempting to Untangle a Badly Mixed Romance.

GOLD MINE HEIRESS

Chicago, March 20.—A New York boarding school, a Vermont farm, secret correspondence and a missing man, today furnished a problem for the Chicago police in their investigation of the identity of a young woman who arrived here alone and who is described as the heir to gold mines worth millions.

The girl is believed by the police to be Florence Gray, who disappeared from a New Rochelle, New York, boarding school several days ago and concerning whom the head of the New York educational institution telegraphed the Chicago police.

"Locate Florence Gray and Sydney Hargrave, girl heiress to million dollar estate—mysteriously disappeared from boarding school. Believe them in your city," was the message from Miss Farlow, head of the boarding school which led to the police activity.

Florence Gray, who at first declared her name to be Florence Ingalls and said she came from Portland, Me., was found at the Young Women's Christian association building where she had been taken by the Travelers' Aid Workers, who met her at a Chicago railroad station. According to the police she admitted her identity after having insisted that her name was Ingalls.

Her story was that a man whom she said was a wealthy mine owner, had planned to marry her and take her to the west. With him she said she boarded a train for Chicago. She said as the train neared Chicago he left her and went to the smoking car and that she had not seen him since.

Letters in the girl's possession led the police to question a young Chicago clerk, Edward R. Blake, who said he had written letters to her, addressing them to a farm at Bethel, Vt. Blake said the correspondence began through reading an advertisement in a magazine.

LOOK FOR MISS EHLE.

Woman Who Lived With L. D. Burnett Due in Fort Wayne.

Announcement was made at the sheriff's office this afternoon that Miss Cora Ehle, who lived in the Edgewater avenue house as the wife of L. D. Burnett, the horseman in trouble at Detroit, was expected back in Fort Wayne this afternoon. At a late hour she had not been located, however. It is not known whether or not she intends to take action in an effort to get control of the furniture in the Burnett house.

Lady Wayne council No. 315 had a public pedro party Wednesday evening and honors were awarded to Mesdames J. J. Muss, Wekolei and Vorndran and Messrs. Zells, Casso and Mohler.

Miss Anna Lowry, of West Berry street, who was seriously ill at Hope hospital since Tuesday, is considerably improved today.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, March 20.—Heavy selling by leading firms today drove down the price of corn. New York reported that nearly a million bushels of Argentine corn had been bought yesterday to come to this country. Opening prices, which varied from ¼c off to ¼c up, were succeeded by a material setback all around.

The close was easy, ¼c to ½c under last night.

Wheat weakened in sympathy with corn. The firm cables, however, tended to check selling. Prices started ½c lower to a like advance, and later showed a general decline, with July leading the down turn.

The close was weak at ⅝@½c to ½c net decline.

Commission houses took to the bear side in the oats crowd. Pit speculators seemed willing to buy at a moderate drop in quotations.

Provisions developed a little firmness on account of an advance in the price of hogs. First sales ranged from a shade to 5c higher but not all of the gain was held.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, March 20.—Lehigh Valley was under pressure at the opening today. The first sale was at an advance of ¼ point, but it then reacted a point. The other active stocks moved narrowly with an easier tendency. United States Steel receded four points further to 68, a drop of 18 points from its recent high figure.

Liquidation in low priced railroad stocks which has held the market in check recently, was suspended today. Rock Island securities in particular made a better showing. Railroad stocks responded with a general advance, and ultimately the industrials joined in the movement, although held back for a time by the sluggishness of United States Steel, which was affected by further reports of slackening of businesss in the steel industry. The morning rise ran to a point or more in many cases. Bonds were irregular.

The market closed strong. Speculation became buoyant toward the end, with general advances of one to two points.

DAILY MARKET LETTER.

(Furnished by J. S. Phillips, North American Building, Fort Wayne, Ind).

Chicago, March 20.—Business news of the world for the week has been mainly hesitant. The trade rally of January has failed to bring a duplication. There is not under way in any industry a buying movement of supreme volume. The tariff has entirely subjugated the steel industry. If Europe continues dull for a year our steel companies as well as the rails will require help in their profits department. Corn news of week justifies belief in 70 cent corn and indicates enough southwest scarcity to help clean up Chicago supplies. On the advance eastern consumers have become alarmed. Buying probably two million bushels Argentine corn at 10 to 13c below western corn, New York basis. The pitiful weekly export wheat totals from Argentina defeat the 65,000,000 bushels winter wheat prospect in the United States. North American wheat and flour exports this week of 4,480,000 bushels are large. Basis of world's wheat statistical position there will be no decline of consequence for some weeks and the market will be forced to respond to reports of liberal export sales. The west and southwest are now on a independent corn basis and a return of bearish conditions could hardly depress the futures below the February and March average low points. On the other hand if a run into the 70's we must remember that our eastern markets will likely be subject to Argentine mutilation for months. Southwest corn markets to be in line with their great scarcity should sell 6c above Chicago.

Stocks stronger today and a better feeling seems to predominate. Prices at 2:15 p. m. New York time, were as follows:

Amalgamated Copper, 76½; American Smelter, 76⅞; A. C. F., 51½; B. & O., 91½; B. R. T., 92½; C. & O., 54⅛; Canadian Pacific, 208¾; Erie, 26⅞; Great Northern, 128⅜; Missouri Pacific, 24⅞; Northern Pacific, 113⅜; New York Central, 90½; Pennsylvania, 112½; Reading, 166⅛; St. Paul, 100; Southern Pacific, 95⅜; New Haven, 70½; Union Pacific, 159½; U. S. Steel, 64⅞.

LEGAL NOTICE—PUBLIC NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that a petition for a stone road in Pleasant township was filed in the Auditor's office of Allen County, Indiana, on the 11th day of March, 1914, and the same will be presented to the Board of Commissioners of Allen County, Indiana, on the 8th day of April, 1914, for a hearing.

Which petition is as follows:

State of Indiana, Allen County, ss.:

Before the Board of Commissioners.

To the Honorable Board of Commissioners of the County of Allen, State of Indiana:

The undersigned petitioners show to your Honorable Board that this petition is signed by at least fifty (50) freeholders and voters of Pleasant Township, Allen County, Indiana.

That there is an existing public highway in said township described as follows:

Commencing at the northeast corner of Section sixteen (16) in said township, where said highway connects with the Bluffton road, running thence west along the north line of Sections sixteen (16) seventeen (17) and eighteen (18), to a point about thirty-five (35) rods east of the northwest corner of said section eighteen (18), and terminating at said point in the Indianapolis road.

Your petitioners respectfully petition that said highway be improved by grading, draining and paving the same with stone, as follows, to-wit:

That said highway be opened and improved to the width of thirty (30) feet; that the grade thereof be constructed to the width of eighteen (18) feet; that there be placed thereon broken stone, to be placed between boards ten (10) feet apart, and said boards to be eight (8) inches high, and the stone to be eleven (11) inches deep in center and placed thereon so as to form a uniform curve from the top edge of said boards to the center of said roadbed; that all necessary drains and side-drains, bridges and culverts and sewer tiles therein be so constructed as to make said highway a complete stone road.

Your petitioners further show that said above described highway connects at its east end with the Bluffton road, which is a county highway, and has been improved by stone placed thereon, and is a free stone road and connects at its west end with said Indianapolis road, which has heretofore been ordered improved by paving the same with stone, and said Indianapolis road at the termination of the proposed improvement is now a free gravel road.

That said highway herein proposed to be improved is less than three (3) miles in length and is a route for the United States mail.

Your petitioners further show that it will be to the interest of all persons concerned in the establishment of said improvement that the same be ordered paid for by bonds to be issued as required by law, payable in not to exceed ten (10) years, and in such denominations as may be fixed by the Board of Commissioners. Your petitioners further represent that said highway herein proposed to be improved is less than three (3) miles in length and that the improvement herein petitioned for will be of public utility.

Your petitioners therefore pray for the location and improvement of said highway by paving the same with stone, in all things in accordance with the laws of the State of Indiana relating to stone or macadam roads three (3) miles or less in length.

FORT WAYNE GETS IN GAME TONIGHT

Local Artists to Show at the Buffalo Bowling Congress.

TORONTO MEN HIGH

Buffalo, N. Y., March 20.—Sutherland and Johnston, of Toronto, shot high in the two man event of the American Bowling congress tournament today, totalling 1,170. They scored 391 in the first game, 358 in the second and 421 in the third. Smith and Browne, of Montreal, were second high with 1,155 while Miller and Zenner, of Buffalo, were third best with 1,129.

Today's two-man and individual schedules is the highest number in the tournament thus far, the doubles running way into the late afternoon while the individual bowlers occupied the alleys until early tonight.

Chicago, Newark, Fort Wayne and Cleveland bowlers will make up the five men squads tonight, the best teams from Chicago being on today's schedule. Six teams are coming from Fort Wayne.

Worked on Canal.

Mr. Tinkham was a native of Ohio, and was born January 13, 1832, in Delaware county. At the age of twelve years his father died and he accompanied his family to Indiana and settled first in Adams county, where they resided but a few years. They then came to Fort Wayne and for a few years he was employed on packet boats on the old Wabash and Erie canal. For a time years ago he lived at New Haven.

He engaged in the fuel business in a small way between 1865 and 1870 and was very successful in the trade and his business grew until a few years later, along in the early part of 1874, he was known as a large shipper of wood and lumber to Cincinnati. His stock was shipped from Fort Wayne on the canal boats to railway stations where the cargo could be taken by rail to its destination.

Always Active.

Mr. Tinkham led an active life and even in spite of his advanced years he continued to personally attend to his business, and his coal yard on West Main street is known as one of the leading establishments in this line in the city. Each day the aged man spent his usual hours at the office of the company and personally looked after the business, regardless of its intensive activity.

He was twice married, and Miss Cora E. Tinkham, general secretary of the Fort Wayne Young Women's Christian association is the only surviving child of the first marriage. One son died, leaving the aged man one grandson. Surviving besides the widow he leaves five daughters, Misses Cora E. Tinkham, Mabel Tinkham, associated with the public library at Gary; Blanche, of Chicago and the Misses Eva, Nellie and Grace Tinkham, of Fort Wayne. The latter is a teacher in the city's public schools.

Mr. Tinkham was a man of lofty character and a splendid citizen in every way. He was one of the oldest members of Wayne Street Methodist Episcopal church, and before advancing years and impaired health laid their burdens upon him was active in the affairs of that congregation.

Funeral services will probably be held Monday afternoon.

THE DEATHS.

TEAGARDEN.

Mrs. Ella Teagarden, aged 57 years, wife of Thomas D. Teagarden, of 2036 Clinton street, died this morning at 8 o'clock from complications of but a week's duration. The deceased was born in Christiana, Norway, in 1856, and came to this country early in life accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Everson.

Mrs. Teagarden is survived by her aged parents, who live in Whitecarth, N. D.; one brother, Julius Everson, of the same place; two sisters, Mrs. J. H. McClure, of Toledo, and Mrs. Oleganny, of Mansfield Wis.; two sons William and James Teagarden, of this city. Mr. Teagarden is a well known Pennsylvania watchman.

FUNERAL NOTICES.

Richards—Funeral services for Henry Richards will be held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the residence of a sister, Mrs. Louis Martin, 625 Hendricks street. Interment at Lindenwood.

Rev. Allan K. Zartman, pastor of the Grace Reformed church, will officiate.

Swaidner—Funeral services for Mrs. Mary E. Swaidner will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence northeast of the city. Interment at the Beaver Chapel cemetery.

Beard—Funeral services for Mrs. Minnie E. Beard will be held Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock from the residence in Lafayette township and at 11:30 o'clock from the Prairie Grove chapel.

Dickover—Funeral services for Jacob Dickover will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence, 2617 South Broadway. Interment at Lindenwood.

Bandou—Funeral services for Mrs. Louise Bandou will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence, 809 Lavina street, and at 2:15 o'clock from the Emanuel Lutheran church, Rev. William Moll officiating.

Black—Funeral services for Mrs. Joseph Black will be held Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the residence in Milan township. Burial will be made at the Bowser's Chapel cemetery.

TWO LARGE PLUMS FALL

W. Folk as solicitor, is about 49 years old and, according to the statement issued from the white house today is "One of the most brilliant lawyers in Texas." He was a candidate for the United States senate once but retired from the contest on account of ill health. With the naming of a new counsellor and a new solicitor all the vacancies in the state department will have been filled, a new third assistant secretary of state, Wm. H. Phillips having recently been nominated.

Mr. Lansing is a son-in-law of former Secretary John W. Foster, of the state department, of Indiana, a warm personal friend of long standing of John Bassett Moore, whom he succeeds and is now the agent for the United States on the British-American pecuniary commission now in session here.

Progressives Oppose Repeal.

Representative Victor Murdock, of Kansas, leader of the progressives in the house, in a statement issued today announced that the progressives in congress are substantially a unit against President Wilson's repeal of the exemption of coastwise shipping from Panama canal tolls. "The progressives in congress," declared Mr. Murdock, "are substantially a unit against the proposition to repeal the toll exemption clause in the Panama canal act. Both democrats and republicans are hopelessly divided. A little over one year ago all three parties covenanted with the people to exempt coastwise traffic. Today the republicans and democrats, as parties, are breaking their pledge. The progressive party, free from the influence of sectional or selfish interest but actuated by principles and united by mutual conviction, is standing by the contract it made with the people.

"Thirteen million voters in 1912 charged the American congress to carry out their will in this matter. To scorn that mandate of the people now is to violate the principle of representative government and to surrender the sovereignty of the American people. Viewed either in the light of technical interpretation or in the large sense of national sovereignty and universally recognized rule there is no prevention in the Hay-Pauncefote treaty in the exemption from tolls of our coastwise shipping."

Ends Without Action.

Expulsion of Representative McDermott, of Illinois, from the house was proposed when the judiciary committee met again today and considered resolutions to censure him and officers of the National Manufacturers association for activities disclosed in the lobby investigation. The debate over including a provision of expulsion of the congressman was hot, but ended without action.

Hearings Are Ended.

Hearings before the house judiciary committee on bills to supplement the Sherman bill were concluded today with the appearance of Williard V. King, of the Columbia-Knickerbocker Trust Co., of New York, who opposed the interlocking directorate bill. Hearings will be continued on the holding committees bill.

E. C. Crow, former attorney general of Missouri, argued today before a senate sub-committee for passage of Senator Reed's resolution for public acquisition by condemnation of the merchants' bridge across the Mississippi at St. Louis.

OFFICIAL FORECASTS.

For Fort Wayne and vicinity: Fair tonight; Saturday fair and slightly warmer. Lowest tonight, about 15 degrees.
For Indiana: Fair tonight; Saturday increasing cloudiness and warmer; probably followed by snow by night.
For Ohio: Fair tonight and probably Saturday; rising temperature Saturday.
For Lower Michigan: Fair and not quite so cold tonight; Saturday increasing cloudiness, followed by snow.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The storm which was central in the southwest yesterday morning has moved to the middle Atlantic coast districts, accompanied by rains over the gulf coast states and snow throughout the Ohio valley. It has been followed by colder weather in the southwest and freezing temperatures extend nearly to the Texas coast this morning.

An extensive area of high pressure covers the central states, giving cold weather over all districts from the Rockies to the Alleghenies. Over Ontario unusually cold weather continues, White River reporting a temperature of 34 degrees below zero.

Another extensive high pressure area has appeared in the extreme northwest, indicating continued cold weather for this section for the next three or four days, although it will be slightly warmer Saturday. Fair weather will continue tonight and probably Saturday.

would reconsider its action before the close of the present session.

Renew the Fight.

Despite their defeat suffrage leaders were prepared today to renew their fight to secure the passage by the senate of a constitutional amendment enfranchising women. To this end it was announced they would support the proposed amendment of Senator Shafroth, of Colorado. The senator endeavored to offer his amendment yesterday. The National American Woman Suffrage association announced through Mrs. Medill McCormick, chairman of its congressional committee, that it would support the new amendment.

"Victory in the senate," said Mrs. McCormick, "is strong enough to warrant redoubling our efforts to secure national legislation and the amendment proposed by Senator Shafroth will meet many of the objections raised during the debate in the senate and the cause of suffrage will be far advanced if we can secure favorable action on this resolution during the present session."

Suffrage leaders were also going forward today with their plans for the big woman suffrage demonstration here May 9. They said 10,000 women would take part in the parade and that it promised to be the most beautiful and spectacular procession that has ever taken place. No effort is being spared to make it an artistic affair.

The Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage, under whose auspices a nation-wide demonstration will be held May 2, announced that advices received from organizers in the field showed that the deepest interest is being taken in the proposed demonstration.

escaped to the Mexican side, where he was shot at several times but not hurt. He plunged into the river, diving down, swam to American side and escaped to San Pedro ranch, four miles from Rio Grande. All indications point to federal Mexican soldiers. Have sent for Ballard who will arrive tomorrow evening."

Bandits Cross Line.

Another message advised the governor a Mexican bandit had robbed a store in Cometa, Texas, Monday night and had been captured.

Cometa is in Zavilla county, which does not touch the border, being about 40 miles from the Rio Grande river. Eagle Pass, where United States soldiers have been ordered, lies between Zavilla county and the nearest way to the border.

Carizzo Springs was near the scene of a sensational incident last summer in which sixteen Mexicans and Americans charged with attempting smuggling ammunition and guns across the border into Mexico were captured after they had killed Candallero Oritz, a deputy sheriff, and captured a former sheriff. Three of the Mexicans have since been convicted of murder. The others, it is said, will be tried here. The trials were the cause of threats being made by Mexicans residing in Texas against Gov. Colquitt several months ago, charging that the ammunition smugglers had no chance for a fair trial.

LECTURE IS POSTPONED.

The lecture which was to be given at the Y. W. C. A. building by C. B. Fitch under the auspices of the Quest club has been postponed until next Friday evening. Mr. Fitch was unable to be present this evening as he is out of the city.
